

night delivered what was epoch-making speech to a of a thousand of his sup- thian, who were admitted ight hon gentleman, we g remarkably well, and a ag sentences of his oration as lost none of his buoyant ill be in the recollection of t the General Election Mr ty was woefully out down ated by Colonel Wauchop, Prime Minister if he saves t election will do so by the fr Gladstone, however, does eak of the "commanding iberal party" in that great of the powerful influence it s over the whole country. s Mr Gladstone states it to ry as a whole looks to the othian as the guide it is to is most re-assuring intel- nionists. Judging by late uld not like anything better nd to follow in the wake of onstituency. There were two the country now looked for om the Prime Minister. A ndictive and mischievous- se of Lords was to be ex- us to be anticipated from the once "the hope of the stern " The people would like to Gladstone what "about the Are the Prime Minister followers prepared to march notion of the House of Lords ent of a separate Govern- or is the Bill to be dropped? with the Bill or is he not? issue, and we wade in vain lstone's speech for one atom the subject. As usual we l of ancient history, with a relations between the two passing of the Reform Bill. to pass the Reform Bill in r distrust, but they passed voice of the nation was favour. There was an appeal d the reply was one which gnarch could resist. There tween the condition of affairs if Mr Gladstone thinks so let e country and abide by the Since the passing of the 392 there are but two cases in evening at St Michael's Church, at 8 o'clock; and on Sunday next there will be an early celebration at 8 o'clock a m as usual on the first Sunday in the month.

ELECTION OF HARBOUR COMMISSIONERS.—An election of a Harbour Commissioner to fill the vacancy created through the lamented death of Mr W J O'Donnell, who represented the importers and exporters, was held to-day, when Mr T E Bunting, who was the only candidate, was declared elected by Mr James Harris, returning officer.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MRS M. C. CRAMER, CO. CORK.

The funeral of this much-lamented lady took place on Tuesday. The coffin, covered with wreaths, was borne on men's shoulders the entire length of the beautiful avenue from the road to Rathmore House, and then placed in a hearse. The interment took place in the family vault at Ringcurran churchyard. Mr Cramer, who is suffering from the rather sudden shock, was unable to be present, and the principal mourners were—Mr J O'G Delmege, J P, son-in-law, and Captain Cramer, Summer Cove, nephew-in-law. The officiating clergymen were the Revs J Penrose, rector of Ringcurran, and J L Darling, rector of St Multose, Kinsale. The general attendance was very large, amongst those present being—Rev A C Robinson, A M, Kinsale; Rev Canon Cotter, P P, Rev L Cummins, C C; Rev F Barrett, C C; Dr Vickery, Dr Meade, Dr Donovan, Dr Dorman, Colonel Knolles, J P; Col. Daly, J P; Major Pratt, J P; Captain Warren Perry, J P; Captain Daly, Captain Allen, Colonel Johnstone, 43rd Light Infantry; Messrs R Heard, J P; H T Daunt, J P; T A W Knolles, E E H Lewis, R Meade, G B W Stuart, D I, R I C; J H Skuce, solicitor; J Armstrong, postmaster; J H Barry, T Crowley, F E Gowan, S Lewis, G King, R Ward, W Prendergast, A H Short, H B Walker, W Walton, J Ludgate, T Smith, J Bourke, B Popham, Manager, Provincial Bank; F H Walker, Manager, Munster and Leinster Bank; J Dunn, R A Williams, J H Pratt, R C Pratt, R Acton, W Kent, B Robertson, F H Walsh, D A McDonnell, J Savage, J Bradfield, Members of the Royal Irish Constabulary, Kinsale; Coastguard and Royal Navy, Summer Cove; and Permanent Staff, 3rd Royal Munster Fusiliers, Charlesfort, etc, etc.

AUTUMN PLANTING.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.
SIR,—I am sure many of your readers would be glad to know how to produce early spring vegetables, when they are both scarce and dear. The plants should be put down either in September or October, and it would be well to sprinkle the ground with agricultural salt before ploughing. The secret of success, however, is in obtaining proper plants, as ordinary kinds are apt to go to seed. I will be glad to give information to anyone that sends me a stamped addressed envelope.—Yours, &c,
MAURICE MORIARTY, J.P.
Sandfield House, Mallow.

TO CREAMERIES—Butter Preservative, as recommended by largest buyers and exporters, to be had from JOHN LAIRD & Co, Wholesale Chemists and Druggists, 118, George-street, Limerick.
March 18

IMPORTANT TO LADIES.—Madam Worth's Celebrated Guinea Corsets (black 25s) may be obtained from her Local Agents, Messrs Cannock and Co (Limited), Limerick. Dec. 10

Mr Herbert Clifford, L.D.S., R.C.S.E., Resident Surgeon Dentist, 11, Upper Mallow-street, Limerick. Country patients should make an appointment by writing a few days previous to calling.

Hunt, Aravina; Mrs Croppings, Mrs G... and Mr Edward Gibbins, Kilsannell; Mrs Bernard and family, National Bank House, Rathkeale; Miss McKiernan, Munster and Leinster Bank House, Rathkeale; Mrs Thomas Gloster and Miss Gloster, Rockmount, Kildimo; Mr and Mrs Fosbery, Riddlestown Park; Miss Royse, Ballinvarick; Miss Nugent Humble, New Park; Mr Henry Hewson, Euniscough; Mr Webster, D I, R I C, and Mrs Webster and family, Rathkeale; Mr Wellans, Mr Elmes, Mr James Norman, Mr John Latchford and William Latchford, Rathkeale; Miss Bessy M... Miss Kate Switzer, Killeheen; Miss Shire, Court matrix; Mr Wm Teskey, do; The Misses Switzer, Ballinlinc, &c, &c. In addition to the foregoing, many of whom had previously helped forward the good work, the following (who were unavoidably absent) sent contributions:—Lady Monteagle, Mount Trenchard; Colonel Browne, Dromard; Mrs D M Manusell, Ballinwilliam; Mr Robert Hewson and the Misses Hewson, Inniscouch; Mrs Daly and Mrs Kirby, Elmhill; Miss Gregg, George street, Limerick; Mrs McDonnell, Liverpool; Mr Johnstone, Castlematrix, Rathkeale; Mr Massey, Glenville; Mrs Moroney, Odellville; Ballingarry; Mrs Harrison, Waterford, etc. The Rev Chancellor Gabbett most kindly brought with him three bronze images of Buddha, which he had got from a friend in Burmah. These were exhibited in the hall of the Rectory, and were examined with much interest, and the Rev Canon Hayden had prepared to photograph a group of all the visitors and hand over so many copies for the benefit of the C.M.S, but the inclemency of the evening interfered with his kindly purpose. It is very cheering to be able to state that about £16 was realised for the good cause, and we are bound to state that this success is mainly due to the unwearied efforts of Mrs Studdert, of Arleman. A sermon for the S P G was preached in Rathkeale Church a few weeks since by the Rev Wm Blood Smyth and Canon Wills announced on Tuesday evening that a public meeting in furtherance of the S P G would (D V) be held in the Parochial School house in about ten days hence. Thus we are thankful to find Rathkeale Parish well to the front for the present year, in the great and glorious cause of missionary effort.

CANNOCK AND Co., LTD, are now showing their new Autumn and Winter designs in Carpets and Curtains, comprising some very cheap lines in Brussels and Tapestry goods; also, a French manufacturer's stock of Damask Curtains, Chenille Brocade and Tapestry, which they are in a position to offer at exceptionally low prices. Their extensive Furniture show rooms are complete, with all the newest designs in dining room, drawing room and bedroom furniture novelties in Bamboo furniture, and some rare designs in Louis XIV style of writing table cabinets and overmantels. They respectfully invite inspection of their windows and ware rooms. [Sept 10]

Mr H. KELLER has just returned from the Countess of Kenmare, Killarney, and Lady Colthurst, Blarney Castle. The following are his special engagements—Monday, October 2nd, Mrs Richard Longfield, Longneville, Mallow; October 3rd, Mrs Penrose Fitzgerald, Cork Harbour Island; October 4th, Miss Longfield, Castlebar; October 5th, Lady Musgrave, Tourin, Lisamore; October 6th, Mrs Villiers Stuart, Dromard; Cappelquin; October 7th, Count Moore, Mallow; October 9th, Monday, Viscount Gough, Lough Coutra Castle, Galway; October 10th, Hon Mrs Algernon Perse, Roxboro'; 11th, Mr Taylor, Castle Taylor, Co Galway; 12th, Mr Glenmorris, Creggelare, Galway; 13th, Hon M Pery, Gort. Mr Keller will be in Limerick after these engagements to attend to the Countess Dunraven, Mrs James Bannatyne, Miss Gray, Mrs Matterson, &c, &c, and leaves town 1st November to attend his large country con-