

Suspicious fire at Alderman's home

MINOR damage was done to the home of Limerick city Independent Alderman Michael Kelly in a fire on Thursday night.

Gardai are treating the fire as suspicious pending the results of forensic tests. They have not ruled out the possibility that it was caused accidentally.

Tavel