

IN BRIEF

Two held in probe into murders

GARDAI in Limerick have arrested two men in connection with the murders of Brian Hanley and Eric Leamy in the city in recent weeks.

The men, one in his 30s and the other a teen, were arrested yesterday morning in the city as part of ongoing investigations into the murder of Hanley on August 26 at Cregan Avenue and Leamy, who was murdered on Tuesday of last week.