Truck driver knifed in face

A Dublin truck driver was cut in the face with a knife as two men tried to hijack his vehicle near Limerick.

The attack took place at 4.45 a.m. yesterday at the Raheen turn-off to the new N20 motorway. The attackers posed as plain-clothes gardaí and forced the driver off the road. The driver, in his 30s, managed to run back to his truck and escape from his attackers.
