

Man slashed after argument in pub

A MAN in his 20s was slashed in the arms and chest early yesterday morning outside a pub in Limerick city.

Gardai believe an argument broke out in the pub beforehand and are following a definite lead. The man was not seriously injured.