

CIVIC TRUST BIG BOOST

DEFENCE Minister, Mr. Michael Noonan, T.D., today announced "two significant developments" involving the total grant expenditure of £33,000 to Limerick Civic Trust.

At a function at Limerick Chamber of Commerce, Minister Noonan revealed that the Teamwork contract with the Civic Trust is to be renewed for a further term.

"This will enable the Civic Trust to recruit 10 unemployed youths and a supervisor to carry out outdoor works as part of their 1989 programme of environmental improvement projects in the city," said Mr. Noonan.

He also announced that the joint FAS-Shannon Development Community Enterprise Committee has authorised the payment of a full time enterprise worker within the Trust for the next 12 months.

"The enterprise worker will have as his brief a development role to assist Limerick Corporation and Shannon Development in the implementation of the major Heritage Precinct project, which I believe will establish Limerick City as a national tourism destination," he added.

The enterprise workers will focus on attracting a wide variety of related employment creating enterprise like coffee shops, guest houses and shopping, to locate within the precinct when it is complete in 1991.

Plea for new fire escapes at Hyde Rd. flats

LIMERICK Corporation

Bishop's pledge to St. Mary's

BISHOP Jeremiah Newman made history last night when he became the first Catholic bishop to preach in St. Mary's Cathedral since the Reformation four centuries