The above photograph was taken at the turn of the century and is part of the Richard Coughlan collection. Former residents of Fish Lane, off Sir Harry's Mall, think it may be the remains of the old Dominican Priory, which was abandoned when the Order moved to Baker Place. One segment of the ruins is still extant at the side of the Abbey Bridge and is practically swallowed up by new development. Anyone who thinks they can identify the ruins are asked to contact Denis O'Shaughnessy on (061) 346662 who would be glad of any information
