S THAT MATTER

of the Electricity Supply Board came to K state of her health he would ew weeks ago to discuss with local represen-ion of the prices of current. His visit was Rathkeale Court on Monday, imion of the prices of current. His visit was larged with breakated demands that the present rates in this losephine curtin (22), of Reens, to a much more reasonable level. It was Rathkeale, who pleaded guilty to Rathkeale, who pleaded guilty to Rathkeale, who pleaded guilty to last week investigating the unusual las to a much more reasonable level. It was Rathkeale, who pleaded guilty to Abbeyfeale Court on Wednesday of the mock sale. Il such hope was sadly disappointed. What clothes, value £53 16s. 6d., and £15 circumstances of a missing calf Continuing, witness said he then

* * *

City Council on Monday night last Mr. summarily by the Justice, was alleged to have been com- course of which he admitted sell- had been no furth that the Mayor convene a furn suggested that the Mayor convene a fur- the goods involved had been re- 25th May last the local authorities in the Twenty-Six duced to £35, as the estimate in the lly decide what action it is best to take in charge was the original value of West, prosecuted, and defendant, side the door. He treated the whole he did not see why the case should the property when new. This best to take in the property when new in the property w . Several efforts have been made to secure articles missing included blankets, bed clothing, table cloths, ladies'

a sensible move, for all parts of the country he was missing property from his donker are the victims of a discrimination in the told accused he was house, and he told accused he was house where he tied the animal. When witness returned again about 1 p.m the don-turned agai w vigour and increased earnestness and walsh, who found all the missing him. the third such meeting, to be convened property. Everything had been re- When James Sheehy, cattle layor.

lestion, showing the absurdity and inequity articles was to start house. There to get on without him. ation going on since the very start of the was nothing previously against her. e. This great project was launched as a said accused also admitted taking tking, and that fact in itself constitutes a the £15 in notes. The money had nent of the system under which one centre is been since paid back. ore for current than another. The cost in Guard E Walsh Rathkeale, proved istance, has all the time been substantially a statement by accused, in the either Dublin or Cork. The only case that General Pollock's employment, for nade for the preferential treatment of the four years. She left his employment is that they consume so much more elecface of it this is a rotten argument, for one statement that the property found uggest that Dublin should get its postage in her possession was taken from than Limerick since it uses such a vastly

E.S.B.'s own showing Limerick has an given her a present of some of it. ile claim for a substantial reduction. It must han twice as much current now as when the saw General Pollock's wallet on the 3 were fixed. If consumption was what was kitchen table and took out three £5 unt in favouring Dublin and Cork, therefore, clearly established its claim for improved day and she told him she did not ig that its volume of consumption has ormously. Apart altogether from this paration, however, nothing whatever is to be Her husband or the Curtin family or logic for the disgraceful discriminiation property having been stolen until is set up to administer a national service and employment for four years, during ons ought be carried out on an impartial which time he found her satisfac-This is not being done at present, seeing that against her until the present made pay much more for current than others. offence. inces have a galling grievance in this respect t fail to compel justice if they only show a ide of spirit and determination in their stated were admitted and the only calf was tied to the door or window o be hoped, therefore, that the meeting being there were externating circum- was in O'Keeffe's Bar when defend- now be grazing in some green pas-Mayor, the third of its kind to be held, will stances. Accused had been a very ant asked him to buy the calf, for tures around Dundalk. I am not epresentatively attended and that some plain lone and practical and effective action decided shortly before her marriage.

S AND WORKS OF E GREAT BACH

ictice of the art, in more religious vein.

musical studies. Leipzig brother's jealousy owering abilities tenacity and When

ifortunate results

view of his eyes. THE ORGAN.

was his interest rk that Bach was instrument was treated twice,

ORTANT STAGE.

ied in 1720,

In the

his voice,

some

e of Bach is one; were not without their crises, and on the 28th of never met. When he received news only for the state of her health," that Handel was in Halle in 1729. n Bach was born Bach was unable to go there on 5. As his parents account of illness; at the same vas ten, he was time, Handel could not be prevailed lder brother, who upon to make the journey to

HAD GREAT RESPECT FOR Bach regarded the notice taken thing that in spite of the fact that calf. Mulholland was sitting on the with his client, intimated that the of him by Frederick the Great, as its work had decreased, there was kerb holding the calf, which was defendant would undertake to pay was that after being pushed into one of the most satisfying rewards an increase of 1,700 in the number later identified as the missing the £10 and the Justice said when the briars he lost his temper for for his life's work. He went to employed by C.I.E. over the last animal. Mulholland was in a Potsdam in 1747; among other six or seven years. things he had to perform on the He had, he said, always stood lifted him up and conveyed him to "I believe." the Justice added, the the doctor but it would not be retary of the Batbalion was charged fifteen planes which had been re-clear of interfering in C.I.E. man- the station where he was detained "that defendant had some drink accepted. cently purchased by the king. agement, but, in future considera- after being charged with being taken and that it may have been The Justice awarded plaintiff a a speech made in the district that At the end of his days Bach tion of the position he might not drunk and incapable. Both Sullivan done as a half joke but it has decree for £8 5s. with costs, and "those who volunteered or would suffered the same affliction as exclude suggestions or ideas for and Pillion established the identity caused a whole lot of confusion and fil is. for the attendance of Handel-he lost his sight complet- the revision of managerial policy. of the call beyond doubt About 20 trouble." ely; the two composers underwent ppointed organist operations by the same surgeon but LIMERICK COUNTY COUNCIL. s interest in the both treatments failed. In 1750.

im to Lubeck in Bach died in his sixty-fifth year re Buxtehude was after an attack of apoplexy.

FINE EXECUTIONIST. operations. This as a fine executionist; one of NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that him his position his most remarkable gifts was February, 1926, the Local Authority actions of his con- his ability to extemporise. When under the Diseases of Animals Acts, ideas about har- he died the manuscripts of his 1894 to 1903, for the administrative wiser counsels works were given to his sons, but County of Limerick, in exercise of the Sebastian was a number of them have never been powers conferred upon them by the traced. Bach composed untiringly County Limerick (Control of Dogs) ulhausen in 1707, and left a vast quantity of music. fulhausen in 1707, and left a vast quantity of music. Regulations:tisfied with his He wrte five sets of cantatas PREVENTION OF DOGS-BTRAYING nist, and went to for the Sundays and Holydays of following year, the year. Among his instrumental 1 No Dog, during any of the hours oyed by the Duke. works, the amount of clavier music between sunset and sunrise, shall be had married and is astounding. Of this type the of his famous best known are the forty-eight pressuch dog, unless such dog shall be

ORIGINALITY OF APPROACH.

s position for six kinds of composition. He is characThe time spent terised by his fugal treatment, and his assurance amid the complexities. his assurance amid the complexities. his genius by prohis genius by proks as the 1st book His melodies and harmonies are ks as the 1st book His melodies and harmonies are thereof, and any person causing, perierte Klavier, the steered to logical conclusions, directing, or permitting the dog to be certos, and some of welded to significant unity under a outside the premises occupied by the last move was to reign of reason. His is the edged owner of such dog shall, each where he took the beauty of frosted landscapes, patthe St. Thomas terned in the light of unswerving the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

ome this HURLEY'S BEDS ARE THE BEST. HURLEY'S, LTD.,

FINE OF £20 IMPOSED IN LARCENY CHARGE

stealing wearing apparel and bed last week investigating the unusual accused was employed as a maid in Bridge House.

covered. Accused gave no explana- dealer, Dromcollogher, was called as that the property was a present she the Justice remarked that if necess- outside the door. got from Mrs. Pollock. Accused left ary he could issue a warrant for e over a period of many years we have dealt May, and was married on 10th or Court. Answering the Justice, witness STATEMENT BY ACCUSED. course of which she had been on 30th May and got married on the 14th June. She admitted in the General Pollock's residence. first started taking the property fourteen days before she left her employment. She told the Curtin family that the property was her own and that Mrs. Pollock had Some time in the middle of May, 1952, according to her statement, she notes from it. He questioned her about the money on the following know anything about it. Accused. in her statement, added that she spent the money in buying clothes. did not know anything about the the Guards came to the house. General Pollock, in reply to Mr. Cussen, said that the accused formerly Josephine Magner, was in his

EXTENUATING CIRCUM-STANCES.

tory He had never any complaint plea he could put forward was that rail of the American Bar Witness might have disappeared and might good employee and there was which he asked £3 10s. Eventually, to be rather suspicious about calf into my lorry when the big accused's husband as, according to Sergeant came up, caught me by the evidence, he helped her to re- the hand and walked me down to move some of the property. ment accused said her husband Witness added that at the station knew nothing about the property he explained how he had bought having been stolen. For nearly two would have their views treated with allow her three months to pay. I the Sergeant to arrest him on the Bachs were pro- more respect, and his music written regard it as a very bad case but I occasion. don't want to say too much about Bach had a great respect for it. How she walks around and

ADMINISTRATIVE COUNTY OF

While he lived, the great REGULATIONS AS TO THE CONTROL

At Weimer he ludes and fugues which make up under the control and in the company ourt organist and the Well Tempered Clavier; in this of its owner, or of some person at much of his all the major and minor keys are authorised by such owner to accompany and control such dog. OFFENCES. 2 If a Dog, during any of the hours tant stage in his Bach's great contribution to between sunset and sunrise, is allowed be became Kapelle-musical development was the occupied by the owner of such dog, and such dog is not under the control sposition for six kinds of supposition.

SEIZURE OF DOGS WHERE REGU-LATIONS ARE CONTRAVENED.

3 Any Dog in respect of which an offence is being committed against said Order and these Regulations may be seized, and treated as a stray dog under the powers conferred by Section

HURLEY'S BEDS ARE THE BEST.
HURLEY'S, LTD.,
CHARLEVILLE.

Of Dogs Act, 1906.
DISTRICTS TO WHICH REGULATIONS APPLY.
4. These Regulations shall apply the entire area of the Administrati County of Limerick.
Limerick County Council,
82/83, O'Connell Street,
Mattresses.

(129p) Limerick.

Court Story Of Missing Calf And "Mock Bargain"

LHAIRMICK TRUTHER, MOLIDAL, JOHN 21, 1332

tion, but said she told her people a witness he did not respond, and land went away.

not too pleasant.

and various other places.

That sort of semi-drunken joke is

Witness-We didn't think it would

DEFENDANT EXAMINED

Defendant, in evidence; said he

Justice-Mulholland says you re-

whereas you should have told him

you were not the owner of the calf and wouldn't sell it. He assumed bargain" he went out the rere and from their point of view. They all had drink taken and defendant pre-

EXPENSE ON TAXPAYERS

tended to sell the calf.

plied that you were the geant what happened.

prosecution?

CALF WAS MISSING Thomas Pillior, cattle buyer, Ferbane, County Offaly, gave evidence ended. It has cost about £25 to bring of having bought the calf from the these witnesses here from Dundalk previous witness and paid him 50/-He arranged with Sullivan to put surely cost about f15 dr f20 the calf in a lorry at O'Keeffe's bring these witnesses here to-day. about 1 o'clock he found the calf was not in the vehicle. He was unable to find Sullivan and reported go as far as that. the matter to the Sergeant, who brought the donkey and cart to the station. Later they found the missing calf near the American Bar, where another buyer named Mul- was in the bar having a few drinks holland had the animal tied to a when he made the "mock pargain, bit of rope. Mulholland, who was as already described. | Mulholland then seemingly airight, was also walked in and asked how much for brought to the station. Nobody had the calf outside the door. Witness permission to take the calf from then, as a joke, sold him the calf for the time witness paid for it. Wit- 50/-, although he wasn't aware at ness had marked the calf with the time that there was a calf tied raddle on the hip and when the outside the door. animal was found later the mark was partly blotted off. John Mulholland, cattle buyer, when Mr Woulfe objected the ground that Mulholland was you were the owner and paid you being charged that day with being 50/drunk and incapable on the same Supt. McKenna-I don't see how you can object to a witness who has not been heard at all yet. Mr Woulfe-No but it seems to Supt. McKenna-I object to any further statement by Mr. Woulfe on

SECOND PURCHASE.

Mulholland then gave evidence that on the date in question he bought a calf from defendant out-Mr. Cussen said the facts as side the door of O'Keeffe's Bar. The the "sale." never anything against her until he bought the calf for 50s., and paid Woulfe, but at the same time it defendant. "Later," continued the the station. I was very upset about Mr. Cussen said that in her state- it as I was never arrested before.

the calf from defendant The Justice said he really ought | Answering Mr. Woulfe, witness to send her to prison for six said he bought the calf from demonths. "However," he added, "in fendant because he knew defendin were often enlivened by differences view of her health I won't send her ant's father for 40 years. Witness with the local Councillors, who to prison but I will fine her £20 and thought it was 'very bad form' of SERGEANT'S EVDENCE. Sergeant J. Normile, Abbeyfeale, Handel, who was his contemporary, keeps her head up I don't know explained that he first learnt of the of them, Johann and regretted very much that they I would have given her six months missing calf when James Sheehy, Dromcollogher, reported that had found a calf which was not his property in his lorry near the would be prepared to dismiss the Anwering Mr. Noonen, witness house in Barrington Street were Tommy McInerney lost sight of American Bar At this time the calf In the course of a speech in the was tied to a doorway near In the course of a speech in the was the date of the luri, and plunged over the pier to Dail on Wednesday in reference to O'Keeffe's. Later, following a com- selves," the Justice added, "and evidently caused by an ordinary classes, and as the date of the the sea at Ballykissane. The th the transport question, Mr. Lemass, plaint by Pillion, witness went to they have no one to blame but blow from a hurley. Minister for Industry and Com- Main Street, where he saw Mul- themselves. merce, said that it was a peculiar holland in possession of the missing drunken condition, and witness case under the Probation Act. minutes later witness met defend- Mulholland, one of the witnesses ant and a man named Batty Har- for the prosecution in the case, was nett on their way to the station, summoned by Sergeant Normoyle They stopped witness and defend- for being drunk and incapable on ant said : "You must let out the the same occasion. man you arrested; this is all a Defendant told the Justice that it Harnett repeated that it was was the first time in 40 years he a joke, and when witness asked was before a Court. what the joke was, defendant said The Justice imposed a fine of

they merely sold the calf as a joke 5/-.

NEW health, new vigour -

by taking Bile Beans regularly.

liverishness and depression.

Economy Sizes 1/6 and 3/61

To ensure cheerfulness, natural charm of youth, and fitness which makes life really worth living, take

Bile Beans regularly, just a couple at bedtime. Trial size 8d. Larger Tonight! Don't forget to take youthful grace your friends

will envy-enjoy these benefits

Medically-tested Bile Beans do more than clear away constipation, more than cleanse your bloodstream and system of toxic impurities that upset health and looks. If you suffer from indigestion, Bile

Beans will help to dispose of the fats and"

Most people need a laxative

Most people need a laxuitous
—some regularly, others in special circumstances. Your special circumstances. Your special circumstances. Bile safeguard is to take a medisafeguard is take a medisafeguard

Beans underwent two years
Beans underwent two years
of clinical tests by a panel
of doctors.
You can take
of doctors.
Bile Beans with greatest Bile Beans for constinution.

confidence for constipations, liver and stomach upsets.

fatty acids that cause digestive trouble,

How to keep your YOUTHFUL YOUKS & LOOKS &

BEFORE THE COURT TUSTICE Kenny had again before before him at Rathkeale Court on Monday the adjourned case in which Patrick Casey, Clounough, that was the subject of what was took 50/- from Cotter's breast Justice that the case had been going accused was employed as a maid was charged with unlawfully and who was under the influence of ing. However, it would appear that in Bridge House.

Inspector W. Byrnes prosecuted from John Mulholland, Dundalk, wait until he was sober to make a at.

ADJOURNED

CASE AGAIN

was alleged to have been com- course of which he admitted sell- had been no further interference Inspector Byrne said that in view and did not know at the time that Supt M. McKenna, Newcastle there was actually a calf tied out of the seriousness of the charges > he immediately went to the station had been of good behaviour since to explain everything and met the the charges were originally brought.

that it was purely a "market barconditions on which the csae was gain," as Cotter wasn't even aware originally adjourned. at the time that there was a calf Mr. Fitzgerald remarked that the at the Shannon Foundry, but was Executive, arrived with the new defendant would be in a good posi- removed almost immediately to a that arms were to be landed in Answering the Superintendent, tion to pay the compensation if he safer place. It was well, as the Kerty within a week, and instructed After making the bargain Mulhol- property. whatever to do with the money. Justice-Assuming all you say is true, you see how the loke has

> would hear more about it ADJOURNED.

was not paid in the meantime.

COURT SEQUEL TO HURLING INCIDENT

keale Court on Monday, before ustice C. S. Kenny, B.L. to an incident during the course of hurling practice, and as a result of which Patrick Doherty (19), Ballyallinan, Rathkeale summoned John Chawke, of the same address, for Mr R. J. Cussen, solr., appeared on returning discovered that Mulholland had gone to the barracks or plaintiff, and defendant was rewith the Sergeant. Witness imresented by Mr. M. F. Noonan mediately followed and told the Ser-Messrs. Liston and Co., spirs.) Plaintiff, in evidence, recalled Witness added that he had actually hat on a Sunday in April last, himbought and paid for 15 calves that self and nine or ten other lads, day. He was never before in any luding defendant, were hurling Chawke's field. After some time wit Defendant did not reply when ness and Chawke ran for the ball asked by the Superintendent what together and witness "shouldered" would have happened if Mulholland Chawke, who fell against the had taken the calf with him after bushes. There was nothing wrong about the "shoulder," which witness Justice-In that case the (cal:

explained was part of the game. Witness then slowly turned away from the bushes and was walking from route marches and accompany themselves to mobilise every available from the bushes and was walking from route marches and accompany able man. He instructed the first recompany able man. up the field when he got a stroke them to the Fianna Hall. The lecwas not the sort of joke people of a hurley on the side of the head. tures and social functions organ-The Justice said he was inclined witness. "I was about to put the should play. What about defendant As a result of the blow he fell ised by Cumann na mBan were should play. What about defendant As a result of the blow he fell into my lorry when the big should play. paying £10 towards the cost of the down unconscious. Later he was patronised by increasing numbers taken to Dr. Mulcahy, who put four On the other hand the National pected as the I.R.B. members stitches in the wound. He had to (Redmondite) Volunteers visit the doctor on four subsequent guished, until, about the end of time what was going on, and him Sergeant Normile said the exoccasions. He bled a good deal as a 1915, they almost ceased to exist. penses of the case would be at least result of the blow, and had to go Cumann na mBan had a strong and say anything about the defendant back to work while the stitches active organization. They organized or the other parties concerned as it was, a semi-drunken episode other man denied that he deliberately pushed spent in the purchase of arms prior, defendant in the back and knocked to the split, £250 had been contribu-Him into the briars. Dr. W. Mulcahy, Rathkeale, said He was taking all the circumstan- that when plalintiff came to his Dermott and McCullagh, gave lecces into account, but at the same house on Sunday, 20th April, he had tures at their invitation-lectures time the taxpayer had to go to the a severe scalp wound on his head which left no doubt in the minds from Dundalk and Offaly. If the de- to put four stitches in it. ards the cost of the prosecution he now alright.

LOST HIS TEMPER FOR THE MOMENT Mr. Woulfe, after consultation Mr. Noonan said defendant's case this was done he would dismiss the the moment and struck plaintiff. steps were taken to check it. Late in

FIT AS A FIDDLE

NOW THAT KRUSCHEN HAS BANISHED HER RHEUMATISM

Here is a woman who has been

This is what she writes:and I can do my housework again.

He GERMANS COMING!

Application to Matron, who Before I took Kruschen I thought Early in 1916 the word went be pleased to forward a Broch derful Kruschen, nothing is a worry enthusiasm in the ranks. to me."-(Mrs.) C. W.

"Limerick Leader" Office for Quota of these the distance covered was names of two persons for references. "Twill pay you to do so. 34 miles, to Matron.

Part Played By Limerick In The 1916 Movement

RELOW we give the third instalment of the paper read at a meeting of the Old Limerick Society by Inspector W. Byrnes informed the Mr. James Gubbins on "Limerick in 1916." This deals ll such hope was sadiy disappointed. What here not only rejected the case for easement tantamount to contempt of the rights and in notes, the property of General here not only rejected the case for easement tantamount to contempt of the rights and in notes, the property of General here not only rejected the case for easement tantamount to contempt of the rights and in notes, the property of General that was the subject of what was took 50/- from Cotter's breast of the subject of what was took 50/- from Cotter's breast of the case had pent took 50/- from Cotter's breast of the case had been case and recalls the Good Friday tragedy in which three volunteers were drowned when their car plunged into usal to concede anything in this matter, we and accused, who was represented with intent to defraud by falsely statement if he wished to do so, by Mr. M. E. Cussen, solr., admitted to defraud by falsely statement if he wished to do so, appeared for Casey, asked the Justice to strike out the case as there the offences and elected to be tried sold was his property. The offence statement after caution, in the statement in the case as there the sea at Ballykissane, on the Kerry coast.

sum of money which had been made available through public collections, Colivet was advised by Head members' subscriptions, contributions from Cumann na mBan, etc., a climax. He speeded up his plans had been spent on the purchase of and completed his Battalion and arms and equipment. Small lots of Brigade organisation. His task in rifles were procured direct from the event of hostilities was to hold he charges were originally brought. Birmingham. Later, John Grant, an the line Limerick/Killaloe and also active Volunteer, had been sent Limerick City if possible. As the there to make further purchases. British forces based on the city ck decided to take up the fight on its own ter agreed, on the proposition of Ald. Reidy, the scope of the demand to include the project of the scope of the demand to include the project of the scope of the demand to include the project of the scope of the demand to include the project of the scope of the demand to include the project of the scope of the demand to include the project of the scope of the demand to include the project for the scope of the demand to include the project for the scope of the demand to include the project for the scope of the demand to include the project for the scope of the demand to include the project for the scope of the demand to include the project for the scope of the demand to include the project for the scope of the demand to include the project for the scope of the demand to include the project for the scope of the demand to include the project for the scope of the demand to include the project for the scope of the demand to include the project for the scope of the demand to include the project for the scope of the demand to include the project for the scope of the demand to include the project for the scope of the demand to include the project for the scope of the demand to include the project for the scope of the demand to include the project for the scope of the demand to include the project for the scope of the scope of the demand to include the project for the scope of the idea of dismantling the rifles, line and to conform to the move and sending them by parcel post. It ments of the City Battalion. The worked; the rifles were delivered. Galtee Battalion to make the Galter He practically accompanied the .303 Mountains the base of its opera-ammunition, which was packed in boxes of 1,000 each, and which also to fight on its own ground and the got through, but the Morris tube Clare men to form a base for the ammunition was seized in Dublin. City Battalion, TIMELY REMOVAL

> Major Pollock's employment on 30th his arrest and have him brought to witness said Cotter did not know was paid the money which he Foundry was raided by the R.I.C. at the time of the missing calf. claimed was due to him out of the the same evening. As the great feale, take his own requirements an majority of the Committee had not send the rest to Galway. This wa Mr. Noonan-I have nothing supported Redmond, these arms fell to he the signal for insurrection to the Irish Volunteers. They were Colivet pointed out that this was Mr Fitzgerald-You have your made available at a price tor the variance with his previous plant Lee Enfields of £5 each to those and was advised by Fitzgibbon t Mr. Noonan-I have not, and if who, it was considered, could afford go at once to Headquarters an you said that in another place you that sum; to those who could not get instructions which would afford a payment, they were given clear and definite. Colivet did s MALICIOUS INJURY CHARGE free. Some shot guns were also dis- and met Pearse on Wednesday, wh tributed. Possibly about 150 men instructed him to cancel all other The Justice said the malicious in- were armed in this way. The loss plans He was to take charge jury charge would be adjourned to of the Morris tube ammunition was the arms at Abbeyfeale and tran the next Court when it could be sorely felt, as it meant that firing port them to Crusheen. The arm Justice But it has gone as far as gone ahead with if compensation practice was practically non-were to be sent by rail, a tra existent. Owing to it's comparative crew having been provided wh scarcity the firing of live ammuni- would undertake the job. tion was discouraged Only once was it allowed during training, when three rounds per man were fired at targets, at the old military action was to be started at rifle range at Bllycannon. The p.m. on Sunday. Colivet four work of organisation was now him surprisingly reticent as carried out unceasingly. Blythe was continuously active, and abroad. Closely questioned, the results of his efforts soon be- would neither confirm nor der came apparent. Companies and that an expeditionary force was sections appeared in nearly every be expected. The ultimate impres parish in the county. Sean O Muir- ion left or Colivet's mind was th tuile, later Quartermaster General men were coming, but that Pear of the National Army, was also was precluded by some agreeme active. He was an important mem- from saying so. He was told ber of the I.R.B., and spent a good might expect to meet an old frien deal of time in Limerick, including and took this to refer to Monteit the period immediately before and He returned to Limerick and ga during Easter Week, when he took an account of his visit to Cland part in all the meetings. Monteith Ledden and Grant, who were in h conducted officer classes in the confidence. He recast his plans South East of the County. A note accordance with his new instruc > > time remarked : "The Limerick Regiment has struck a recent visitor from Headquarters as, perhaps, the most efficient in Ireland. In some respects it leads Dublin." POPULAR FAVOUR BEGAN TO

The wind of popular favour now communced to veer slightly in the direction of the Volunteers. New to parade was to hand over his ri recruits came in. Groups of citizens to his Company Officer. He earnest used to wait at the city outskirts exhanted those present to were still in, as his boss had no Ceilidhthe, dances and lectures, the proceeds of which materially bene-Replying to Mr. Noonan, plaintiff fitted the arms fund. Of the money ted by them. Men prominent in the movement, including Pearse, Mc-expense of bringing these witnesses about two inches long and he had of their hearers as to the direction The in which the movement was headhe fendant undertook to pay £10 tow- wound was slow to heal but it was ing. Miss Madge Daly was president, and the doors of the Daly case under the Probation Act. agreed that plalintiff would not be always open to show hospitality to "They brought it all on them- disfigured by the mark, which was the visitors. They organised first aid Rising approached they were constantly engaged in the manufacture of field dressings.

> PROSECUTION AT FOYNES This activity caused apprehension in the minds of the authorities and (To be continued on Monday ne Defendant was prepared to pay for 1915, James Dalton, organizing sec-the volunteer to fight for England were only cowards, traitors and prosti- Candidates between the ages of tutes." He was defended by the late (18 after August, 1952) and 80 ye Mr. Hugh O'Brien Moran. Mr. who wish to train for Certifica James Gaffney, Crown Solicitor, of General Nursing Council MIDDLE-AGED And James Gainey, Crown Solicitor, of General Nursing Council who conducted the prosecution, said England and Wales. There are that a serious view of the case was few vacancies for February Sch taken by the authorities. The police also for Schools commencing h evidence was contradicted by a August and November, Experie 'large number of witnesses. In parti- gained in Children's Wards cular it was denied that the phrase similar Units "cowards, traitors and prostitutes" Hospital is complete Train was used. The case was dismissed, School and Students spend the the Chairman saying: "The major- twelve weeks in the Prelimin ity of the Bench are not satisfied Training School. Lectures beyond reasonable doubt that the given by qualified Tutors and words relied on in the summons sultants throughout Training, Towards the end of August, 1915, the men discovered that Monteith and about again, full of pep and was gone-to Kilkenny it was said. energy. Yet for months she lay in No hint had been allowed to reach bed—a prisoner to rheumatism. them of his intention to leave and From which a deduction of the what she writes. they regretted his departure deeply, per annum is made for Board "A few years ago, I was a victim During his nine months stay he Lodging. Four weeks Leave of rheumatism. I lay five months had performed trojan work and his granted annually. Grant of fit and could not move myself. I spent personality and his ability had won awarded on passing the Prelimin pounds, getting one thing after their genuine regard. His desanother, but nothing did me good; tination was Germany via the in fact I got worse. One day I saw U.S.A. His return to his native Croydon is 101 miles from Lon Kruschen Salts, and I thought I land was by way of Banna Strand and on main bus and train rou would try them. They have worked on Good Friday, 1916. He shall The South Coast is within an he wonders. They have given me ease, appear later in this narrative.

I had finished with life. Now after around that the Germans were and any further particulars desi having taken a few bottles of won- coming. This was the flood tide of for ever were the desperate deeds Rheumatism is often caused by of desperate men, such as Emmet's acid impurities settling in the two hour rebellion or the debacle joints and muscles. Ordinary aper at Ballingarry, contemptuously delent salts, which only act on the rided by the English Press as the owlsb, can't drive out these impurirebellion, in a cabbage patch. They pictured in their imagination culosis. Association, two then flushed away through the a campaign in which the manhood course. Salary, £205 first year, bowls, can't drive out these impuri- of the country, fully armed and second year, less £100 for full Kruschen does. It helps both the trained, side by side with European dential emoluments. Additi kidneys and bowels, drive away im- soldiers and officers, would engage bonus of £40 after two years purities wherever they collect and on equal terms with the ancient tinuous service. Dependants a prevents them accumulating again. enemy. It was an exhibitating ance may also be payable. dream. Training was intensified, weeks holiday annually with mobilizations at short notice were Fares to Wales of successful PRINTING-When about to order tested, long route marches on the didates may be paid under cel Printing of any kind ask at the Sundays were carried out; in one circumstances. Apply with

Before the split a considerable EVENTS REACHING A CLIMAX Three weeks before Easter, quarters that events were reaching ments of the City Battalion. Th

On the Tuesday of Holy Week The 303, on arrival, was deposited Sean Fitzgibbon, of the Voluntee Colivet to receive them at Abbey

> FOUND PEARSE SURPRIS-INGLY RETICIENT Pearse also Ernest the amount of help expected fro

in the "Irish Volunteer" about this ions THE MARCH TO KILLONAN At the parade on Holy Thursd night, Colivet gave his instruction for the following Easter Sunday mobilisation. The Battalion was march to Killonan for exercise which would continue on Monds Every available man was to parac carrying arms and ammunition, a Battalion officers to remain behi after dismiss, and to them he ga the news It was not entirely un

On Thursday night also the amm nition was removed from the cad in Pennywell. SEQUENCE OF DISASTERS And now began the bit sequence of disasters. On Good Friday, two Limeri men, Tommy McInerney and Sa Windrim, were detailed to take c to Killarney. They were to res there at S p.m. pick up five m who were coming from Dublin rail, and convey them to Caher veen. They contacted their no three of whom, including Con Ke ing, the wireless expert, sat in second car. During the night dr tail light of the first car, missed turn, and plunged over the pier i passengers were drowned, but I Inerney escaped, only to be arres later. He later lost his life in a arms accident

MAYDAY HOSPITAL, CROYDON, 619 BEDS. A special invitation is extended are included in the 48 hour wee The Training Allowance is:-1st year - - £200. 2nd year: - - £210. 3rd year

CEFN MABLY T.B. HOSPIT ST. MELLONS, Nr. CARDI SOUTH WALES (158 Beds)