

The five Great Powers of re before them which was s; but decency and justice It would be admitted that them who, in their European last two or three years, had d and constantly practised , and shown, as it was their disinclination either to rush r the responsibility of doing o provoke a conflict. He natters which were in pro- Government were in office ly settled by Lord Salisbury. reement with the Powers as nd also an agreement with Afghan frontier, in which ated the proceedings could nd fault with; but if they ion of the Balkan Peninsula no indications of a modifi- r which seemed to exist two . He then dealt with the nd referring to the dismissal oy from Washington, said ight to have the effect of , and keeping in bounds the : bragadocio which was in political opponents with n affairs of the country. In with the probable results of Election, expressing his se of the Liberals is a win- is most sanguine for the parently were his hearers. eech lacked novelty, and orial beyond those worn-out ty details with which the oughly familiar.

Wright, of Schull, has been stle West, County Limerick.

Advertisement that a Gospel at the Hall Mallow street his week, commencing at 8 nced, Mr F W McCarthy, he important sales of house- his salesrooms on Thursday half-past one o'clock. See Princess Hall, Piccadilly, the Post says:—"The delicate accompaniment by Madame Mina Gould of the three famous songs dedicated by Beethoven to Count Browne in 1833, and splendidly vocalised by Mr Iver McKay, was beyond praise. It is some time since I last listened to Sims Reeves in the ever-fresh and matchless "Adelaide;" but I much question if the great tenor in his best days rendered the composition more effective than Mr Iver McKay."

DEATH OF MR GEORGE D EVANS.—His many friends in this city will learn with unfeigned regret of the death of Mr George Duncan Evans, M.A, only son of Mr Frederick Evans, formerly of Limerick. The sad event took place on the 2nd inst, at Glenville House, Falmouth, where Mr Evans had been staying with his family in the hope that his health, which had been for some time delicate, would improve. However, an all-wise Providence has ruled otherwise, and what promised to be a brilliant career has been cut short in the bloom of manhood. We have more than once in these columns referred to Mr Evans's successes at school and at college—successes of which his relatives had great reason to feel highly proud. His kind and unassuming manner won for him a host of friends, and in Limerick, where he had been so long known and with which he had been so intimately connected, the news of his premature demise will be received with the greatest sorrow. We sympathise with the deceased gentleman's respected father and family in their deep affliction.

THE LATE PROTESTANT ORPHAN BAZAAR.

Mrs Plummer returns thanks to her numerous friends for their kind contributions and donations to her stall at the Protestant Orphan Bazaar:—Donations—Mrs J Bannatyne, Summerville, £1; Mr Beauchamp, Mallow street, £1; Mr Blennerhassett, Shannon Lawn, Glin, 10s; Mrs Browning, Carass, £1; Mrs Caswell, Blackwater, 10s; Mrs Fitzgerald, Glin Castle, 5s; Mrs Garfit, Kenwick Hall, Lauth, England, 10s; Miss R Hinde, Beverley Road, London, 5s; Miss Kennedy, Laurehill, 10s; Mrs Kennedy, George street, 10s; Mrs Lloyd Apjohn, West Cliffe, Kilkee, 10s; Mrs Murphy, Bank of Ireland, 10s; Mrs Phelps, Water Park, £2; Mrs Webb, Knocktoran, £1. Also contributions from—Mrs Anderson, Ringlee, Torquay; Miss Heaton-Armstrong, George street; Mrs Bannatyne, Woodstown; Mrs Blair, Woodstown; Miss Belshaw, Mount Vincent Terrace; Mrs Bunbury, The Deanery; Mrs Collis, Tieralea, Tarbert; Miss Christie, Ballyamona; Mrs Crostwaith, Eagle Lodge; Messrs Cannock & Co, George street; Mrs D'Arcy Evans, Mount Vincent Terrace; Mrs D'Esterre, Catherine street; Miss Elton, Craig Bog, Co Limerick; Mrs Fitt, 9 The Crescent; Mrs Fitzgerald, Aldridge Road, London; Mrs Fairy, Folkstone; Miss Fogerty, 37 Catherine street; Mrs Fogerty, Henry street; Miss Green, Greenmount; Mrs Gelston, George street; Miss Going, Violet Hill; the Misses Gregg, George street; Messrs Goodwin & Co, William street; Mrs Hickson, 70 Leeson street, Dublin; from her opening in per at any rate, if the projec-entation on the subject well be made to her Maj on Irish eggs should be those concerned in th literary matters inclt Irish Authors" from Gould, and an excellent sketch by "J D," of " situated some twelve Irish Trade is to be had figure of one penny.

BARRINGTON

The usual monthly Committee of Barringt yesterday, Very Rev I and the others present W H Swain, and Rev Fa St Michael's, Hon Sec. The minutes of the las confirmed.

The number admitted the month wa 53; disc deaths, 4. Extern patie the following subsc ledged—Mr R V O'Brien junr, £3 3s; Mr W Hartigan, £5; Colonel £5; Mr S Pitcairn, Jury at Quarter Sessi paying patients, £21 0s. The ex enses of the i month were £100 2s 9d.

Father O'Shaughness hands £52 0s 7d to meet consequently have 10 He hoped, however, to scriptions, and trusted t Fancy Ball, being organiz of the institution, wou difficult s.

The other business wa

THE CORP

THE CLEANSING AND The meeting of this Co—the Mayor in the c present—Alderman J F V Patrick Herbert, Mich and Jeremiah M'Carthy.

The business was of a PUBLIC HEALTH The Mayor presided als committee.

THE LABOURER

Mr Connolly said Mr furnished the Corporati whereby Messrs Troy a trustees of the contract labourers' and artizans' d and any future cheques name of Messrs Troy and In reply to Mr Herbert Mr Corbett said he had matter but to give his cer Mr Connolly's suggest cheques payable to Messr