DEATH OF MR. JAMES HOGAN, J.P.

We regret to announce the unexpected demise of a popular and well known County Limerick gentleman, Mr. James Hogan, J.P., which took place at his residence, Carrans, Ardagh, on Saturday, after a brief illness. Mr. Hogan, who was a gentleman of splendid physique, was for very many years intimately associated with public life. He was an old member of the Rathkeale Board of Guardians, and since the Limerick County Council came into office was a co-opted member of that body. He was also a member of the County Infirmary and Lunatic Asylum Committee, and a Justice of the Peace for the County. His sound common sense, and courteous bearing were always highly appreciated in public and private life, and his demise is deeply regretted by a very wide circle of friends. The funeral which took place yesterday from Kilcoleman R. C. Church was very largely attended.

A GARDENER STABBED

On Sunday evening Patrick Carmody, living at Ballykeeffe, was brought to Barrington's Hospital, suffering from a wound on the forehead and two cuts in the back, alleged to have been inflicted in an altercation with a labourer named Thomas Hoare. Yesterday the depositions of Carmody were taken by Mr. Hickson, R.M., in the hospital where he identified Hoare as his assailant. The circumstances of the assault point to the fact of Carmody having acted as peace-maker between Hoare and his wife. Accused was remanded in custody.
