

great pleasure in admitting you y in the Church of God. Your considerable reading and thought. there was doubt whether you might st. It was a neck and neck race nd Mr. Rose; but in the paper Book, Mr. Rose gradually forged hed off to my room to write home assed," feeling somewhat guilty, ad a fortnight for my ordination

Two pieces of episcopal advice all: "Don't put all your Theology sermon, remember, you will need ur second," and then the Bishop ust not be dull in the pulpit. It be dull. The generality of people inted reminiscences, summoned ant past, are utterly inadequate to reader the amount of concentrated personality of Wilberforce brought each one of us, during four days orgotten.

ey, in Westminster Abbey, preachagic death of Wilberforce, said: ce of the Diocese is gone. The dramatic interest, the multifari-nt, the trumpet's silver call, the ng iron, the joy and the toil of agic of dissolving views—all these of the late President Garfield's successful career is to be found in the well-known book, "From White House." It is something do what you are doing as if you do it through all eternity, but be y fitting yourself for something the young business women of ld take this advice to heart, we eet with complaints in the news-woman seldom rises to a position in a commercial concern. That brains should be content to keep ie keys of a typewriting machine r passes comprehension, until it is that most young women expect to limately. Meanwhile, an occupaprovides some kind of weekly is not to be despised. The girl filling up her spare time till, as press it, "the right man comes husbands are like the peaches at house dessert, "they won't go has been calculated how many les there are in Kensington alone er be married.

were wise, they would carefully ves with real efficiency, and would heme and details of the particular hey are employed. There is an ambition amongst girls in business, in no effort at self-improvement, pt at self-training. Take a woman man clerk, both inexperienced, an office under similar conditions, cases the man will work his way aps become a manager, while the remain with her position

The very way in which female dress shows that they do not take riously. You can see them in the ir, with large hats, bare necks, rimmed blouses, and imitation ny male attire analogous to this a man to be discharged from his n, who mean business must learn part before they can become comesses.

is girls make good wives? Why know something of routine and hav have felt tired and worn day of John Casey alias Michael Regan an a charge ot stealing from the dwellinghouse of Thomas Foley, farmer, Licadoun, a sum of £10. Up to the 2nd of last month, Casey had been employed as a farm hand by Mr. Foley, and through courtesy of the latter was allowed sleeping apartments in the house, until he got work in the neighbourhood. On the following day, Mr. Foley left home to visit some friends, and in the evening when he returned he found a box in which he had money broken open and rifled. A sum of £10 was missing, as was Casey, who was conveyed back to Limerick on Saturday evening, and remanded by Alderman McDonnell, J.P., for eight days.

FUNERAL OF MRS. GOGGIN.

The remains of the late Mrs. Goggin, relict of the late Mr. Stephen Byrom Goggin, of this city, were removed yesterday morning at 9.30 from her residence, St. Stephen's Villa, North Strand, for interment at St. Munchin's Church.
The cortege was large and representative, and testified to the high esteem in which the deceased lady was held by a wide circle of friends, and the deep regret which her premature demise has occasioned.

The chief mourners were—The Rev. S. L.
Goggin, Kinsale, son; W. Ruttle, Derry, brother; N. Wilson, Dublin, brother-in-law; H. Ruttle, Ballingrane, J. Shepherd, cousins; W. Ruttle, Tralee; J. Bramell, Limerick; Mrs.
Hance, sister-in-law; Miss Hannington, cousin; J. Corneille, Bushmount, Patrickswell; B.
Corneille, Ballygrane.

The clergy present were—The Lord Bishop, Rev. R. A. Adderly, Rev. T. B. Robertson, and Rev. A. Egan, Methodist Church.

Amongst the general public were—Sir Thomas Cleeve, D.L.; F. C. Cleeve, M. Dooley, T. Ryan, S. E. Lee, J.P.; John Byrd, M. Mulvaney, C.E.; T. Reed, E. H. Poe Hosford, J.P.; Robt. Evans, J. Cunningham, W. Riordan, D. L. Roche, H.
Spraggon, W. Gullen, James Joynt, G. Scott, J.
A. Myles, solr.; F. Johnston, B.A.; H. K.
Roycroft, J. G. Wilkinson, W. O. Stokes, R.
Geogheghan, H. Gale, C. Jones, J. Cunningham, A. Shier, Parteen; J. Latchford, Ballingrane; W. Horne, M. B. Widdess, J. Greene, J.
Belcher, J. H. Watson, T. Lawlor, T. McMahon, H.
Woodhouse, E. L. Wickham, W. F. Pike, W. F.
Hanna, H. L. Stewart, Auchmutty, C.
Downey, C. Hill, P. R. Toppin, junior; Andrew Murray, F. Parker, A. Jordan, W. Gullen, J. A.
Baldwin, A. H. Baldwin, A. J. Eakins, J.
Morrow, G. Scott, junior; A. Lee, Sergeant Keating, etc.

Carriages were sent by the Bishop, the Dean, Sir T. Cleeve, Mr. F. C. Cleeve, and others.

The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Mr.
Adderly.

Several beautiful wreaths of natural white flowers were sent by friends. Amongst them—Mrs. and Miss Spraggon, Mrs. Munroe, W. J. and V. Ruttle and family, Mrs. Evans, Mrs.
Baldwin, Mrs. Scott.

CONSTABULARY SUCCESS.

His many friends in Limerick will learn with satisfaction of the success of Head Constable John Fitzgerald in the recent examination held for admission to the rank of District Inspector of the Royal Irish Constabulary. The successful officer, who is now stationed at Roscommon, will be promoted in the course of a few days. He style, with embroidered lawn collars, a bands of gold tissue. They wore wreat orchids and tulle veils, and carried s lillies, which with gold double chain with the initials "A. H.," and date in blue enamel (Guard's colours), were th the bridegroom. After the ceremony a was held by the bride's grandmother, M Baxendale, at her town residence, 35 Square, W., and during the afternoon married couple left en route to the where the honeymoon will be spent. T going away dress was composed of old with hat to match, trimmed with silv and a sable stole and muff, the gift of h Upwards of 400 guests attended the where the costly and numerous pres displayed, including:—

To the Bride from the Bridegroom—crown tipped with pearls, two eme diamond rings, half hoop diamond pearl and diamond rings, turquoise and pendant, diamond earrings, large swallow, diamond heart locket, etc.
Vincent, rope of seed pearls, doubl diamond ring; Mrs. Vincent, diamond large silver framed mirror, old French Aubusson carpet, etc.; Mrs. Birley B diamond necklace, diamond wings, buckle, and cheque; Colonel and Mrs. sapphire and diamond bracelet, chequ basket; Captain Berkeley Vincent Artillery, Japanese silver dish; M Vincent, tortoise shell and silver v Major and Mrs. Eley, marquetricie t Misses Clara, Cynthia, and Rosemary and Master Patrick Vincent, dressing ivory fittings; Prince and Princess Handjeri, gold box; Viscount diamond pendant; Mr. and Mrs. C pink topaz pendant and platinum ch Lionel Stevens, tourmaline and pearl Mrs. H. Chichester, yellow topaz Mrs. Bowring, embossed silver blot Algernon Bowring, embossed silver case; Lady Maud Barrett, silve box; Lady Ellen Lambart, silver bridge box; Mrs. Upton Robin mounted purse; Miss Agnes Llo tea caddy; the late Mary Countess silver mounted purse and card ca Montgomery, silver sugar tongs; Mr Roger Cunliffe, china tea service; C Mrs. Davys, enamel clock; Mr. Ayns well, case of dessert knives and fork Lowndes, tortoiseshell handled umb Bowring Hanbury, framed coloured e Mrs. Bowring Hanbury, china coffee silver mounts; Mr. R. Camm, ebony toasting fork; Captain and Mrs. Nug spoon; Lady Jane Van Koughnet, spoons; Mr. F. Charlton, fan and la frame; Lady Jane Jodrell, hand en tea cloth, Mr. Reginald Chicheste o'pearl opera glasses; Mrs. Chiches ivory screen; Colonel and Mrs. Foste silv-r pepper pots; Mr. A. Gosling, si Mrs. C. Ewart, crushed morocco wri Miss Maud Hamilton, lace handkerchie Countess of Idlesleigh "Thomas à B hand painted vellum binding; Mr.
Lyte, pewter bowl; Countess De M cats; Mrs Alfred Loder, turquoise and knife and seal; Hon. Mrs. Albert Petr and enamel parasol handle; Mr. F. C silver hair brushes; Miss Grace Pec o'pearl sleeve links; Miss T. C platinum and gold curb bangle; Mr. I tortoiseshell and silver paper knife Mrs. Philip Wright, two tier mahog Mrs. Richard Chichester, silver p Messrs. N. and G. Chichester, ename and Mrs. Part, silver clock; Lady Reynolds, silver gilt fish knife and