that the appalling daub on the screen was really something special when you held the glasses to your eyes.

The majority of the scenes have objects apparently being hurtled at the audience and I was not the only one ducking the flower pots eggs, horse shoes and splashing paint brushes.

The real 3-D may be seen with-have reproduced in this column.

As she crossed the road towards a leading Limerick hotel she turned around, and waved back at the pair.

FILM ACTRESS RITA GAM IN LIMERICK

Screen and television actress Rita Gam (star of the "silent" thriller, "The Thief," seen at the Savoy recently) paid a surprise visit to Limerick yesterday week and is seen here with Dickie Harris who recognised her in O'Connell Street and asked her for her autograph.

out the use of these spectacles and it is expected that "The Robe" (if not "Bwana Devil") will be among the first full-length third dimension films to be screened in Limerick.

In the meantime, make a point of visiting the Lyric this week. It is an experience you will long remember.

CINEMA PIONEER DIES.

Mr. Richard Williams, a director of the Carlton Cinema, Limerick, has been bereaved by the death of his 76 years-old father, Mr. Randall Monte Williams, one of the pioneers of the cinematograph industry.

He died at his home in Canvey a hat model and did a few Broadway bit parts before breaking into T.V. Her sultry face and beautiful speaking voice - (Mr. Harris must be the only Limerick man ever to hear her speak as she had no lines in her first film, "The Thief") - have cast her in TV whodunnits - and she does as many as three a month.

A brunette with green eyes, she has a prominent birthmark on her neck, and this is clearly visible in the picture.

She is the wife of TV director Sidney Lumet.
