

communicated to the County Council who adopted a cautious attitude when the communique was read out at Friday's meeting.

ACTING MANAGER

BRIAN Reddan, has been appointed acting manager of the Shannonside Mid-West Regional Tourism Organisation by the Board of Directors.

30 YEARS AGO

RICHARD HARRIS

LIMERICK born film actor, Richard Harris, was amongst the Hollywood Academy Award best actor nominations for his part in the British film, "This Sporting Life". Now 32, he won a Munster schools rugby union cap and won a schools cup medal with Crescent College. He played with Old Crescent afterwards in a side which also included present M.E.P. and former Irish international hooker, Paddy Lane.

SERVICE

JACK Flynn, 6 Wolfe Tone Street, retired on pension after 42 years service with the firm of Messrs. Dan O'Connor Ltd., Upper William Street, Limerick.

He was presented with a canteen of cutlery by Alderman G. E. Russell, managing director, on behalf of the directors, and with a silver tea set by John O'Connor on behalf of the staff.

WILLIE IS HONOURED

TREATY Sarsfield man, Willie Naughton, was nominated chairman of Limerick city juvenile GAA board. He had occupied many offices in his club both in the city divisional board and in the county board, and was a well known referee at Munster Council and college games.

by Tom Dreaper and ridden by Pat Taffe, won the Gold Cup from the English favourite. Mill House (8/13).

BUS FARES

THE minimum bus fare in Limerick was 4d following an increase of 1d.

DAN BRILLY

DAN Brilly, Limerick-born solicitor on the Law Agents staff of the Dublin Corporation, was off to Australia on a three weeks trip during which he would take on the Australian Quiz Champion, Professor Barry Jones, in a series of television programmes.

RUGBY

YOUNG Munster announced their Senior Cup XV to meet Constitution at Musgrave Park as follows: Jim O'Shea; John Hayes, Hugh McGrath, Christy Dickinson, Paddy Treacy; Tom McMahon, T. O'Donnell, captain; C. Carey, T. Dickinson, M. O'Connell, W. Quane, J. Purtill, P. Wallace, Terry Brogan and Joe Casey.

CLOUNANNA

THE last four in the Irish Cup were Foundling, Kilbelin Playboy, Spring Twilight and Repeat Order.

40 YEARS AGO

THE GARDA

THE new uniform issued to the Garda Siochana was worn in Limerick for the first time. the outstanding feature was the open neck tunic, necessitating the use of a tie, which is of a regular colour - blue.

Members of the force are very pleased with the change.

DRAMATICS

THE College Players were presenting Vincent Carroll's "The Things That Are Caesar's" at the Theatre. Some mem-

COLLEGE

THE Bishop of Limerick, Most Rev. Dr. O'Neill, announced the course of a Lenten Pastoral, that a new diocesan college was to be built.

The matter, he said, had been under consideration for a number of years and certain preliminary steps had been taken.

8/2/94

HOSPITAL

THE City Manager, Mr. M. Macken, told the city council that tenders would be invited for the building of a new maternity hospital at Belfield.

ARBOUR DAY

LIMERICK celebrated Arbour Day with the planting of 35 beech trees in Shelbourne Park by 35 pupils of St. Munchin's C.B.S., under the auspices of Limerick Branch, Trees for Ireland Association.

Among those present were, Rev. Bro. Heelan, David Dundon, Tom Kennedy, Professor King-Griffin and K. Imbusch.

APPOINTMENT

MR. T F Broe, county manager, Clare, was recommended by the local appointments commissioners for appointment as county manager for Wexford. He had been administering the office in Clare for two years. Mr. Broe was for a number of years secretary of the Limerick County Council.

50 YEARS AGO

CO. LIBRARY

DAN Doyle, Limerick county librarian, secured new premises for the library service. They were situated at No. 99 Henry Street and served as alternative premises to the library headquarters in Sarsfield Street which had been destroyed by fire.

FILMS

own trophy, the Alderman Pat Kennedy perpetual trophy, to Rory McMahon, winner in Search for Talent competition held at CBS, Sexton Street. @e2:Rory won three firsts in group singing, in group improvisation and in solo instrumental. He was second in English

Paddy Mullane, Enda
Miss, Sam Benson. Front: