WHAT'S ON ...
 AND WHERE

The Beatles in two films at the Savoy

SAVOY

"LET IT BE" stars The Beatles in a feature film which gives an intimate view of them as musical creators and performers.

It shows them rehearsing, recording, philosophising and relaxing.

"Let It Be" is in colour. Co-features: "Yellow Submarine" with The Beatles.

Thursday's dual-feature programme includes "Cinderella" and "Flannel Suit"—a show which has been expected here for some time.

LYRIC

CHRISTOPHER LEE is once again the star of yet another interesting release—"The Night of the Big Heat"—a film which will share honours with "Death Curse of Tartu."

Thursday's "Winchester '73" co-stars James Stewart and Shelley Winters.

Co-feature — There is the Glory—is the graphic story of Arnhem.

A scene from "Let It Be" (Savoy).

CITY THEATRE

Great" with David Hemmings and "Lone Star".

STAR-STUDED revivals here include "The Night of the Following Day" and the chilling "Eye of the Cat" and (from Thursday) the made-in-Ireland (Galway area) "Alfred the "Black Hawk" George Landry and Mijanou Bardot, provide the dual feature entertainment at this popular cinema.

CARLTON

AN UNUSUAL double-feature programme here pairs "The Oblong Box" and "The Dunwich Horror."

This special bill—of interest to the "horror" fans—begins a series of really big doubles which includes a European Premiere. programmes here

GRAND CENTRAL

"KES" is proving to be one of the most successful films of the year.

Limerick audiences are delighted with this attraction, which is really excellent entertainment.

ROYAL

"THAT KIND OF WOMAN" with Sophia Loren and Tab Hunter, and "The Pirates of
