

Sailant in Custody.

(From our own Correspondent.)

In Petty Sessions yesterday, Terence O'Brien, was charged with a serious assault on a publican, and on her aged mother, as the latter's life was reported to be in a dangerous state. A deposition was taken, and Casey was committed to custody for eight days. The proceedings were uninteresting.

SALE AT HAZELWOOD.

Glynn, Ennis, had a most successful stock sale at Hazelwood, for the executor of the late Mr. Hallam Studdert, on Thursday. Michael O'Brien, Limerick, bought a horse for £50; and Captain O'Grady bought a red hunter, by Fortunio, at £50. The prices were realised all round.

LIMERICK MANUFACTURE.

Mr. Father Little, P.P., supports Limerick manufacture, and writes—

"Parc-na-Tobar, Quin

"I have much pleasure in testifying that the 'Shannon' Bicycle which you built some six months ago, has given me the greatest satisfaction. Although I have since then ridden more than 600 miles over all manner of roads in almost all sorts of weather, this bicycle has, on both sides, been subjected to all the usage to be expected from a beginner, and has given me of bicycle riding without any unpleasant experience."

"I also to acknowledge my obligations to you for his practical instructions in bicycle riding."

"DREW A KNIFE"—AND GOT KNOCKED DOWN.

(From our own Correspondent.)

In the weekly court at Ennis yesterday, a constable had a summons against Michael O'Brien for assault and threatening him.

O'Brien had a cross case against Sherlock and was committed to custody for assault.

O'Brien said he was going home, when Molloy stopped him on the road and wanted him to go back.

He drew a knife and threatened to kill Molloy, who thereupon knocked him down. O'Brien then threatened again to kill Molloy with a penknife. Plaintiff took the knife from O'Brien.

The case was adjourned for the production of evidence.
