

Armstrong and his family desire their sincere thanks for the many kind telegrams of condolence and aid they have received, and regret that it has been impossible to reply individually.

his market on Saturday the following obtained: Hay, 37s 6d to 45s per 30s to 42s 6d; reed, 80s to 83s; to 14s 6d; mangolds, 13s; potatoes, per stone; oats, 10d to 10½d; firkin, 10s 5s.

year nurse applied to the Guardians meeting for three chairs. One membered they should not rob the ratepayer that they should provide two at eventually the matter was referred to the Committee.

able and respected Parish Priest of Rev. P. J. Horgan, in crossing the field after dark on Friday evening owing to the unevenness in the ground somewhat celebrated sewer has been led in, and broke his arm in two rick Newman, nephew of Mr. J. H. ne Inland Revenue of Clonmel, has open competitive examination for the here were some 1,200 candidates for es. Mr. Newman's success was the in Galway, Cork and Limerick, the es in the south.

Fitzpatrick found three pint measures all of porter on the licensed premises mitage, Barrack Street, Nenagh, at Saturday night. Defendant said he annly swear that not one sinner was se that night, except his family, but he os.

in the upper waters of the Reale are t the prospect of a fish gap being with the kind permission of Messrs in their mill went at Listowel. For a le number of years past fishing in the de had been a useless pastime owing to the nature of the Listowel weir, ex h flood.

any has been formed to resuscitate z industry in Waterford, and already und of £30,000 has been subscribed. any is composed of a number of d those interested in the corn trade in d Waterford, and it is proposed to building at once a large mill on the side of the river.

ly, marine store dealer, Drumbiggle, ined 5s for not having complied with e Store Dealer's Act, in inserting in his quality of articles, and the person from purchased them. The Bench conat if there were a thousand purchases should be inserted in the necessary case for the Superior Courts was ressive ceremony (the writer a Hokitika dent) took place in the Chapel of ille's Convent, Hokitika, recently ss Kathleen Molony, in religion, Sister ncis, daughter of the late Mr. Patrick f the G.P.O. Dublin, and of Carrahas mis, and niece of Sister Mary Patrick, founders of the Hokitika Convent, he white veil engines, and the latest scientific means of what is technically known as "plumbing the bread" have been adopted. By this method new bread will always be available for the crew.

THE AUSTRALIAN TEAM.
(By Telegraph To-day.)

FUNERAL OF MRS HEATON-ARMSTRONG.

At half-past ten this morning the remains of the late Mrs. Heaton-Armstrong were removed from her residence, 79 George street for interment in St. Munchin's Cemetery. There was a large attendance of the general public present to pay a last tribute of respect to the wife of a gentleman who has enjoyed a wide sphere of popularity not alone in the city but in the county and in Clare.

The chief mourners were—Charles Heaton-Armstrong (husband), C. R. B. Heaton-Armstrong, W. H. Heaton-Armstrong, and G. W. Heaton-Armstrong (sons), Colonel Henn (son-in-law), R. Stackpoole, Captain G. Stackpoole, C. R. A. MacDonnell (nephews), T. G. S. Stackpoole-Mahon, G. W. F. Stackpoole, and Colonel Hugh Westropp (relatives).

The clergy present were—The Archdeacon of Aghadoe, Rev. J. T. Waller, Archdeacon of Limerick, Rev. J. Dowd, Rev. G. L. Swain, Rev. R. Ro's Lewin, Rev. A. Thomas, Rev. R. H. Seiple, Rev. T. B. Robertson, Rev. C. V. Atkinson.

Amongst the general public present or who sent carriages were—Mrs. O'Brien, South Hill; W. L. Hunt, Colonel R. Maunsell, George Street; W. M'Donnell, Sir Thomas Cleeve, E. M. Russell, F. St. C. Hobson, Peter Fitzgerald, F. G. M. Kennedy, C. Keane, Poole & Gabbett, Captain Verschoyle, J. V. Phelps, Edgar Phelps, J. E. Goodbody, Capt. Twiss, F. M. Brett, R. J. Lee, Sir Vincent Nash, H. Blackall, R. Harris, F. Johnstone, E. D. Hunt, E. H. Poe Hosford, James Frost, Dr. Kennedy, Wm. M. Beauchamp, J. E. Murphy, F. Fitt, H. A. Ferguson, Courtney Croker, Joseph Matterson, H. V. Morony, Dr. Gelston, Dr. T. Gelston, G. Gelston, W. Barrington, C. E. A. J. Barnett, R. de Ros Rose, John Boyd, Major Lawe, P. J. Frost, A. Hall, junr., J. Welply, Andrew Murray, Bruce Murray, Dr. Shanahan, L. Graham, William Lloyd J. Clarke, S. J. Russell, Patrick O'Meehan, William L. Stokes, J. P. J. Greene-Barry, G. Belshaw, A. W. Shaw, J. P.; Mrs. Vanderkiste, Bishop of Limerick (Dr. Bunbury), J. O'G. Delmege, S. F. Dowling, Misses O'Callaghan, J. Lavertine, Dr. Laird, R. L. Brown, John Hayes, S. F. Ebrill, A. Blood-Smyth, Captain Edwards, R. Nash, F. L. Armstrong, W. W. Whittaker.

Wreaths were sent by the following:—C. Heaton-Armstrong, George and Alice Heaton-Armstrong, W. H. and May Heaton-Armstrong, C. R. B. and Ethel Heaton-Armstrong, Colonel and Mrs. Henn, Marjorie Henn, C. G. W. Heaton-Armstrong, Hannah Dwyer (maid), Mrs. F. Kennedy, Mrs. W. L. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. MacDonnell, Colonel and Mrs. G. N. V. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Bertie Whitehead, Mr. R. G. Stackpoole, Servants at 79 George street; Mrs. Hobson, Mr. F. St. C. Hobson, Mrs. Montiford Westropp, Mr. John McLagan, Waterpark; Mrs. Stackpoole, Eden Vale; W. Christy, E. W. Christy.

Very Rev. the Archdeacon Wynne, and Rev. J. T. Waller officiated at the graveside.

become worse. Business is at a

DISTURBERS' EFFORTS

Kielce, Polar Attempts to create further dist failed.

STEAMER ASHORE (By Telegraph To-day)

A Lloyd's Montevideo telegr steamer Chili Leath, for Bue ashore at Chus. Assistance has

MAIL BOAT AND STEAMER (By Telegraph To-day)

Another Lloyd's telegram Larne mail boat, Princess May, gow steamer, Spray, collided i Both were slightly damaged.

ST. JOHN'S HOSPIT

The Rev. Mother Superiore Hospital, gratefully acknowle four tons of coal from Michael B. C., ex-Mayor.

TONGUE-TIED BO

Sir Oliver Lodge, lecturing Birmingham University, said the boy of to-day was ignorant; he the subjects he had been taught; at Latin without being able to freely; he learned what he cal German, and was tongue-tied himself abroad.

GAME TRESPASS

At the Doonass Petty Sess Mr. P. J. Kelly, R.M, presidi magistrates present were Me O'Grady Delmege and J. McIn named William Hanrahan and Limerick City, were prosecute lawfully in pursuit of gam McAdams property on Sunday, 8 Constable O'Mara, of Ardnac by Mr. Blood-Smyth, stated the question he saw the two defenda scope on Colonel McAdam's pro fadda, which is preserved by Croker. They were then about They had two greyhounds and and were looking for game. under observation for about 20 sequently he met them on the their names and addresses.

The defendants admitted be serves, and were each fined 10s. awarding one-third of the pen stable, who respectfully declin

CLONMEL FOOTBALLERS R

For a considerable time the b has lain on the popular football rocks of Clonmel. The Convent suspension on Sunday.

SENTENCED TO DEATH.