ay at the Commission court, Mr.
 O'Callaghan was convicted of the man-on the 23rd of July, of a boy named rony, by recklessly driving a motor car inix Park. The jury strongly recom-he prisoner to mercy. Mr Justice sentenced the prisoner to three months' ent, and in consideration of his state of he would ask the medical officer of the ay special attention to him.

the evening when the hours of Sabbath would have expired.

Witness said he would do so.
 Mr. Hickson observed that the witness appeared to have acted very honestly in the transaction. He always found that men of the class and position of witness acted with strict honesty.
 After a number of witnesses, including Detective Foley, had been examined, the defendant was returned for trial to the next Assizes, bail being accepted, himself in £40, and two sureties of £20 each.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.
 Rheumatism, Neuralgia. It is sometimes difficult to determine which of these diseases is afflicting the sufferer, but this ignorance will not matter if Holloway's remedies be used. They alleviate and cure all muscular and nervous pains. In hereditary rheumatism, after bathing the affected parts with warm salt water, Holloway's Ointment should be well rubbed upon the spot, that it may penetrate and exert its soothing and regulating properties on the deeper vessels and nerves which are unduly excited, and cause both the pain and swelling. Holloway's treatment has the merit of removing the disease without debilitating the constitution, which was the inevitable result of the bleeding, mercury and colchicum practice formerly adopted in these complaints.
