different

Okay, so it's easy to talk about being different, but how easy is it to actually achieve it?

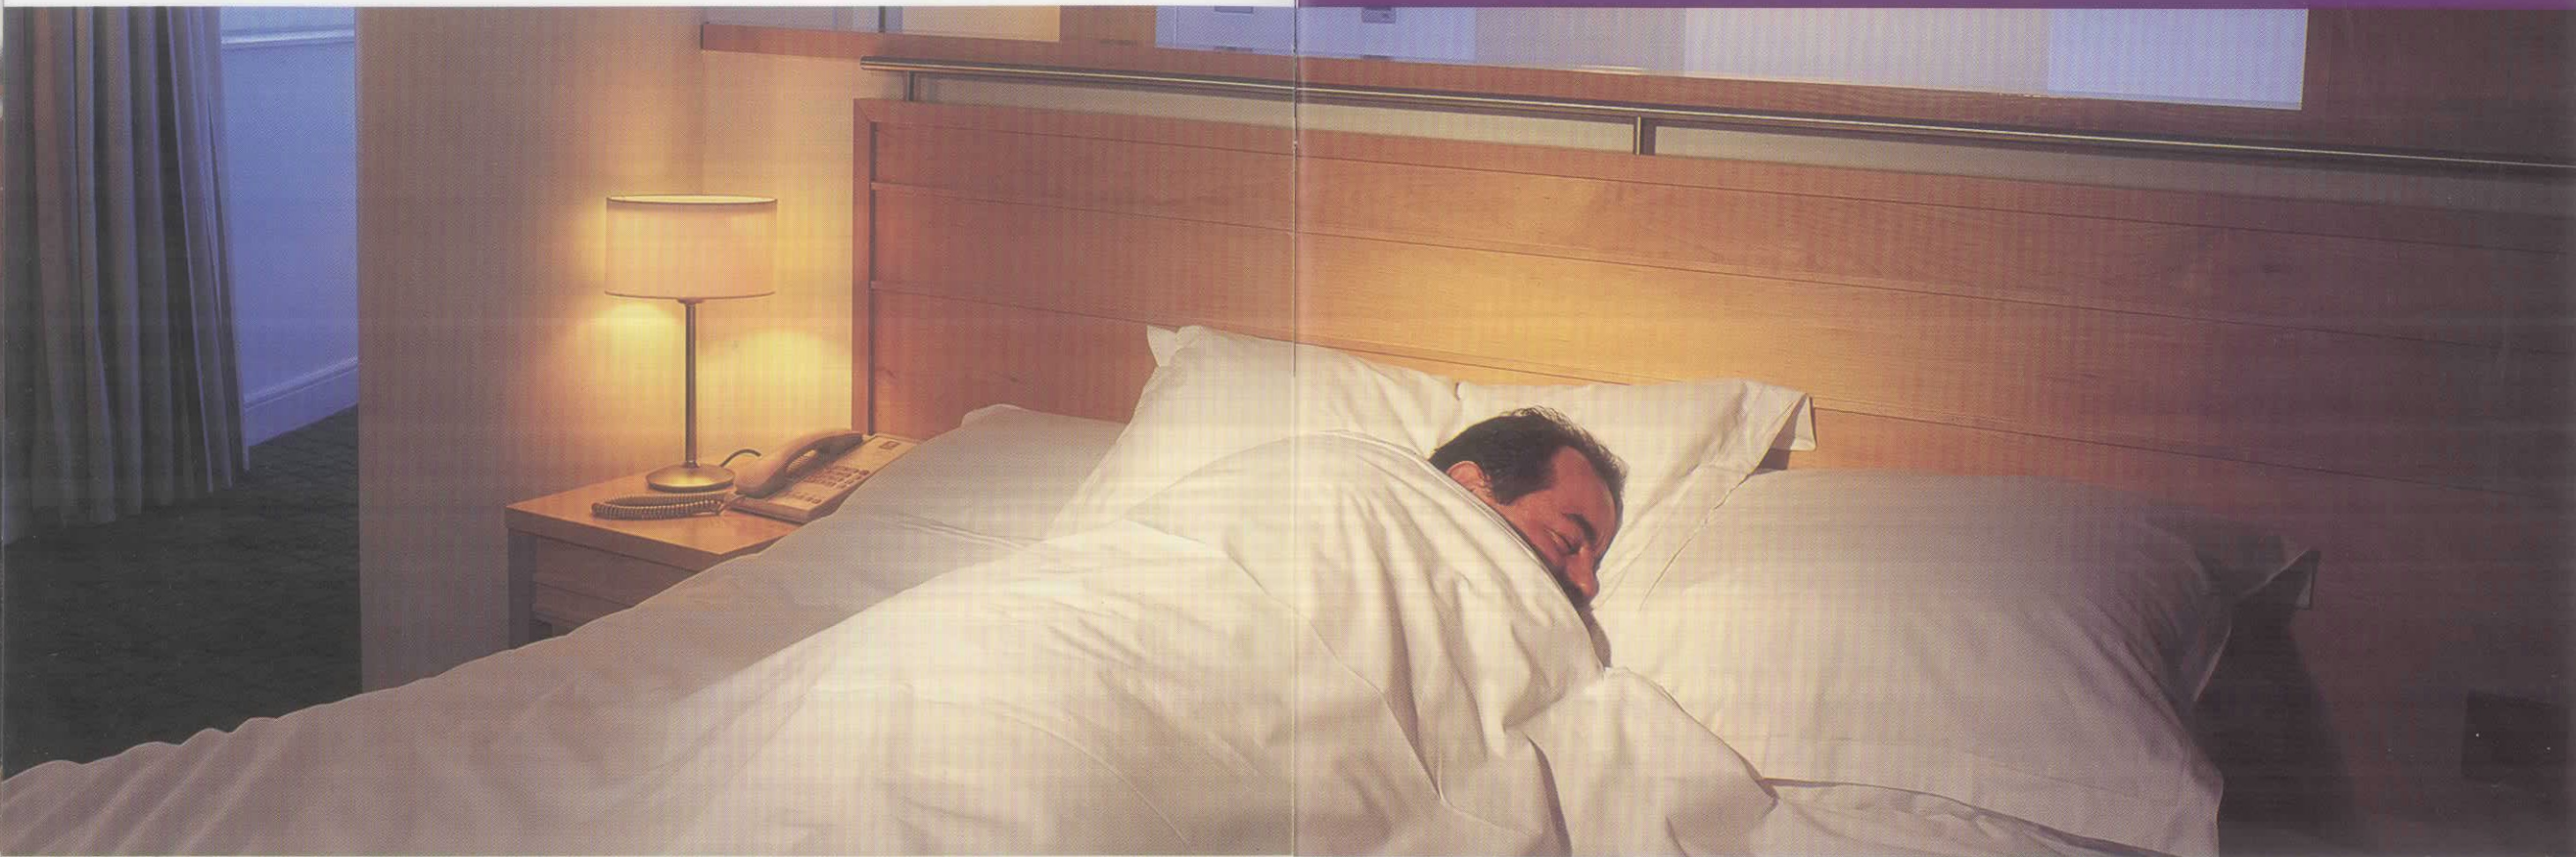

At The Clarion Hotel Limerick, remarkably so, and you'll notice it from the moment you check out our location, 17 tall floors on the River Shannon on Steamboat Quay right in the heart of Limerick City.

You'll notice it again with our switched-on smart receptionists checking you in quickly, and in no-time you'll be enjoying the fabulous views from the tallest hotel in Ireland.

You'll notice it in the way any special requirements or needs will be noted and dealt with as smoothly and efficiently as possible. And you'll notice it in the wide range of fabulous facilities on offer.

But where you'll notice it most of all is in the detail.

That is until you are snuggled up amongst the clouds with no ground noise, plenty of fresh air, just rest and sleep, under the encapsulating white duvets, all the comforts of the Clarion brand - AC, dual modem points, interactive TV with movies on demand, in-room safe, power shower and fluffy white towels. And, before you have to face the world, there's an array of to-die-for bath and shower accoutrements plus the thoughtful addition of a real iron and ironing board, and a hair-dryer that actually dries your hair.
