Now available in Limerick

NO. 7 cosmetics are now available in Limerick and Patricia Fitzgibbon is the resident No. 7 Beauty Consultant in Todds Department Store.

Patricia will be joined this week by one of the No. 7's senior consultants, Kay Woods.

Kay will be demonstrating some of No. 7's recent introductions, one of which is the recently launched and highly successful 'Moisture Plus'.

'Moisture Plus' is a unique blend of special natural oils combined to stimulate nature's own skin moistures.

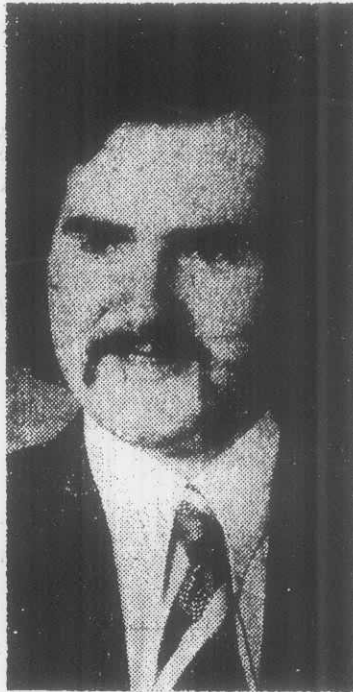

'Moisture Plus' is so rapidly absorbed by the skin that the natural oils and other beneficial ingredients, can penetrate into the skin to soften, smooth and improve its condition.

Shapiro at Parkway

HELEN Shapiro, who shot to fame as a pop singer in England in the mid-sixties, is sure to prove a big attraction at the Parkway Cabaret next week. Helen has several hit songs to her credit and topped the charts on several occasions. Parkway entertainment manager Pat Ryan, is to be congratulated on securing Helen for a week long engagement at the Parkway. She is a big name in the cabaret scene in England. This is just one of the many top line attractions booked into the Parkway Cabaret for the week of July 15-19.

The "Glen" has new manager

MR. Michael Fagan, a native of Dublin, is the new manager of the Glentworth Hotel. He succeeds Mr. Michael Royce, who has taken up another post elsewhere.

Michael brings a good deal of experience to his new post and has been working for the P. V. Doyle Group for the past seven years.

He was formerly assistant manager of the Skylon; executive assistant manager of the Green Isle Hotel.

He considers that the Glentworth Hotel has fantastic potential and one of the finest in the South of Ireland.

No doubt, Michael, who has a natural flare for organisational work, will ensure that the "Glen" will live up to its reputation for its warmth and friendliness and retain the splendid name it has down through the years.

He played rugby for Blackrock College, where he was educated.

Miss Helen Berger, who worked with him in the P. V. Doyle Group, is the manageress.

Lecture on Irish architecture

THE LIMERICK and Clare Chapter of the Irish Georgian Society invite members and their friends to a lecture on Irish architecture After The Act of Union.

It will be given by Mr. Edward McParland, Trinity College, on Monday next, July 15, at 8 p.m. in the City Art Gal.

Desmond's fine achievements

TWELVE - YEAR - OLD Desmond O'Sullivan is certainly making a name for himself in both Gaelic football and hurling.

To date he has won an inter-city medal for Gaelic against Kilkenny; two junior schools medals for hurling under 11 years; an Olo Cup medal under 14.

In addition to his ability at games, Des has won an All-Ireland medal for school drama and a number of medals for athletics in the boy scouts inter-cub sports.

His ambition is to become a member of the C.B.S. Dr. Harty Cup team and it looks odds on that he will achieve that ambition.

His favourite hurler is Sean Foley and his soccer idol is Johan Cruyff.

Des was instructed by Bro. Maye, who is now teaching in Dublin.

He is third youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Paddy O'Sullivan, who run a licensed premises in Edward St.

Des has a brother, Liam, who is a Lieut. in the Defence Forces, and another brother named Pat; three sisters, Breda, Bernadine and Trace.

Mr. O'Sullivan was a noted rugby forward in his day, having won a Munster Cup medal with Garryowen.
