

ceeds
nces.
very
ional
ar at
aven-
cup
Lime-
Rory
the

O'Connor, Ardagh (phone 202-0059); secretary, Mick Cotter, Kilfinane; asst. secretary, Miss Nellie Magner, Ardagh; treasurer, John Mullen, Ardagh (phone 624-4394).

Working committee: Paddy Cremins, Newcastle West; Jack Meade, Elton; Willie Ryan, Hospital; Mrs. Kennedy, Ardagh; M. Brazil, Hospital; Mel O'Brien, Knockaney.

day evening) is a best seller.

Violinist

The violinist tomorrow evening is Sylvia Rosenberg—fresh from her triumphs of the Henry Wood Promenade Concertos—is also giving her first recital in Ireland. She is a graduate of the Jullard School of Music in New York, where she was a pupil of the Homes Exhibition which opened at the Jetland Ballroom on Wednesday evening last and which is sponsored by Limerick's very progressive Junior Chamber.

Hundreds of citizens and visitors from outside areas patronised the Exhibition and many warm compliments were paid to OSH Displays, Limerick, for the high standard of promotion and design, and for

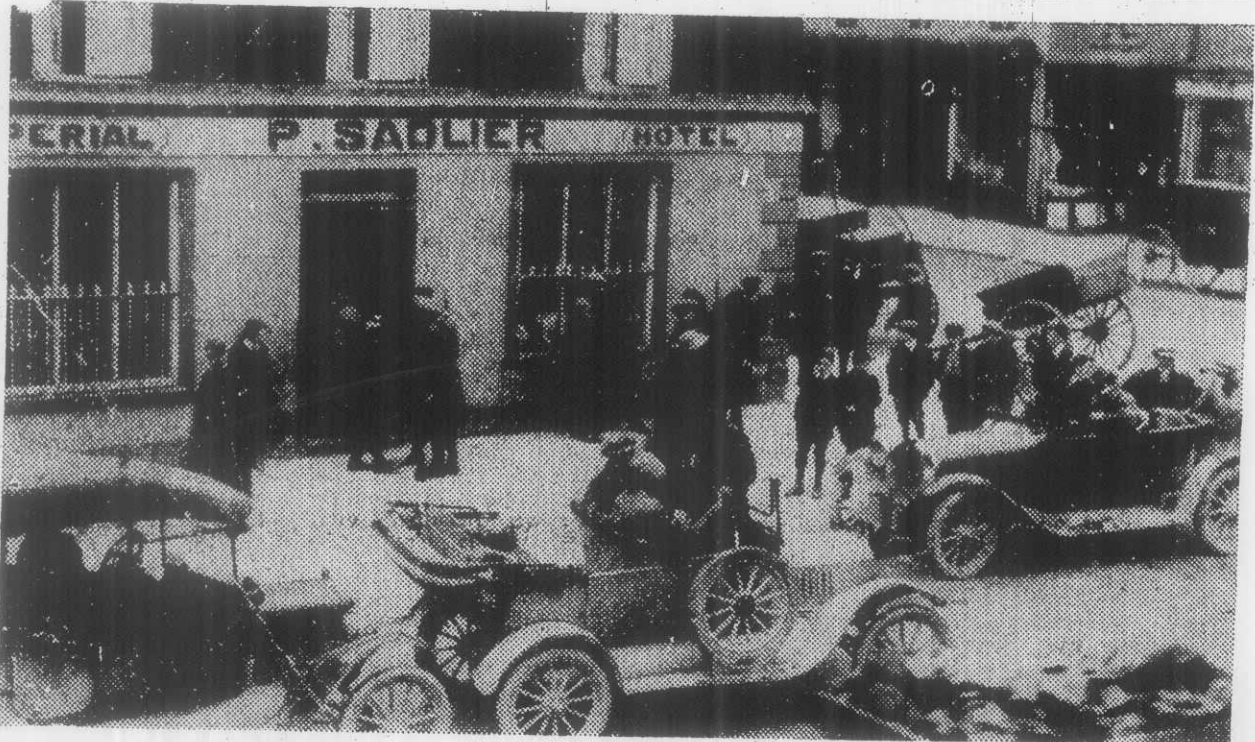

hold an
weds ar
Earlier in Exhibiti
start wi
by the I
O'Driscoll
luncheon
ental Ho
The host,
presently
of O'Sul
plays wh
hibition,
firms ta
Limerick
"who ha
mense h

They had
exhibitio
ally attr
with m
splendid
tions fo
A particu
ation is young c
while th ing on
hibition.
Another
which t
highly c
television
Sunday'
final, t
Offaly.
Speaking
Michael
the Ch
said th
the beg
in Lim
every s
ated th
their er
Mr. Padd
the Lir
also sp

ed to
, Kiln
n the
ling
ning
ost of
Lime-
onnor
on to
urling
1972.
your

s to
or the
meet-
n the
nonth
Abbey
N.W.8.
come;
Marl

Laura,
s in
lock,
t, and
of Ar-
visit-
marara.
ormer

A scene outside "Sadlier's," Imperial Hotel (now demolished), Catherine Street, during the Truce period (1922).

NEW MUNSTER WATERPARK PREMISES OPENED

Limerick, he continued. "We in Allied Irish Banks are confident that there exists in this region, a tremendous potential for growth. Our interest is borne out by the fact that we have located our North Munster Regional Headquarters in this city, under the able command of Mr. Paddy McGrath, who is well well known to you. Through the services we provide and through the services available from our Merchant Bank and hire-purchase subsidiaries, we hope to contribute and participate in your future well being.

Allied Irish Banks had too very close links with the agricultural sector, he said, and added: "We in Allied Irish Banks are equipping ourselves with the

WANTED: A PICTURE OF WATERPARK HOUSE

"We came to Ireland to find out if the people over here are as good as our father," said the brothers Joseph and Emmett Mulcahy of Windber, Pennsylvania, when they arrived in Limerick a few weeks ago. And they return today after one of the most enjoyable holidays of their lives where "the countryside is beautiful and the people wonderful."

Their father, Mr. George Mulcahy, was born in Limerick in 1887, and emigrated to the United States at the age of 16. George is son of the late Patrick Joseph Mulcahy, who worked as a butler with the Phelps family at Waterpark House, Castleconnell, for many years before taking his family to America in 1903.

as it looked before it fell into decay. They were, unfortunately, unsuccessful in this quest. The Mulcahys have not any relatives they know of in the Limerick area. Their grandmother was Ellen McNamara of Croom. During their vacation they stayed at Ballineen House, Ennis Road, where they were very hospitably cared for.

"Success"

Mr. Tim the Ju rick, sq of the ion, sa people out an own ex "For ma men ir doldrur have 1 success in all c the Sp Ireland new st now t pride i sport, Limeri of Irel A specia ition v the m Trophi the pa The Exl daily and w day, S It will stands thing ber of housev kitche ideas.