

... have mercy on his soul.
offered. — Always remem-
and sadly missed. Una.

(D)

KNOWLEDGMENT

IN—The husband, son and
er of the late Mary Flynn,
t. Pallasgreen, Co. Lime-wish to thank all those ympathised with them in
recent sad bereavement:
who sent Mass cards, tele-
and letters of condolence, l those who attended the
l. Mass and funeral. A word of thanks to the l and nursing staff of the al Hospital, and the clergy tended. The Holy Sacrifice Mass will be offered for entions of all, as a token itude.

(c)

LIMERICK GOLF CLUB

Required

SALE SECRETARY

(Part Time)

details and particulars
be had on application

Secretary,
Limerick Golf Club,
25, Beifield Gardens,
Limerick.

Completed applications must received by January 31.
(Dflic)

WANTED

for Limerick City Office

ARCHITECTS

to stating age, experience
salary required to:

BOX D1031

Interview location to su (f11c)

NATIONAL FISH

COOKERY

COMPETITION

is year's National Fish ery Competition organised Bord Iascaigh Mhara in co-ation with the Fishing Iny Development Committee proving conclusively the ing interest in fish in Ireere is a record number of es—over 18 000—as against last year. In particular, the schools in rural areas

e is a vigorous response this is the first year the petition has been extended ke in the secondary schools.
e competition is part of a prehensive Market Develop-t Plan introduced by B.I.M.
in 1963 and was the out-
of consultations with
rep. who other

MR. MICHAEL CROWE

WISHES TO ANNOUNCE
THAT HE WILL TAKE OVER OWNERSHIP OF
THE . . .

IMPERIAL HOTEL, LIMERICK

ON WED.
NEXT,
JAN. 15

IRISH HOSPITALS' SWEE
BRANCH SWEEP OFFICES AT CORK