

been in for a long period, has donated her body for medical research at University College, Cork. The funeral service will take place, this Thursday, November 13, at 1.30am at St Mary's Cathedral.

The Right Rev Edward Darling, Bishop of Limerick, also mourned her passing: "I understand that she was the first Patrol Leader in the first Limerick Guide company in 1928 — a further indication of how she allowed herself to become involved."

Rarely do individuals bring in old documents — people usually want to hold on to them, or they are worried something will happen to them."

WORK ON OLD CEMETERIES

A NUMBER of old graveyards throughout Limerick city are soon about to receive a facelift.

The Cemeteries Committee of Limerick Corporation recently visited all the graveyards in the city and, following their report, the

THE Southill Community Council's Youth Centre Development fund was launched this week at the Beamish and Crawford Ltd premises in Galvone Industrial Estate.

The Celia Holman Lee Model Agency is engaged in a joint fund-raising effort with the council.

chairman of the Community Council, Mr John Hannafin, welcomed everyone to the function. He thanked in particular Mr Stephen McDonagh, of Messrs Beamish and Crawford,

BINGO

THERE is to be a complete clampdown by authorities on the spread of bingo sessions in the city.

Judge Murtagh de Burca has stated that he is not prepared to grant any further licences because "the city is overserved with bingo licences".

The first club to be affected by the decision is the Limerick Association Football and Sports Club, whose application for a licence to run a bingo session in the city was refused at the City Court.

Mr Des Deeney, solr, Limerick, made the application on behalf of the club.

RETIRED

THE retirement of two long-serving members of the Aviation Radio Services at Ballygireen was the occasion of an enjoyable function at Bellfort Inn, Lemeneigh More, Newmarket-on-Fergus.

Those who retired were Mr Bennett H Tierney (Communications Superintendent), 31 Shelbourne Gardens, Limerick, and Mr Patrick Hogan, Ard na Greine, Ennis.

Mr Dan O'Neill, engineer in charge, Shannon Airport, made the presentations.

PRESENTATION

MR CHRISTY Carey was presented with a silver tray and goblets on the occasion of his retirement after 47 years with Shannon Mills. The presentation was made by Mr Christy Madigan, chairman of the flour section.

Also present were Mrs Carey, Mr Frank Liston, Mrs P Ryan, and Mr John O'Donnell, organiser of the function.

ANNIVERSARY

MR AND Mrs Paddy Keane, of 5 Little Glentworth Street, celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary. It was marked by a special anniversary Mass celebrated at St Saviour's parish church by Rev Fr Lavery OP, PP. Afterwards, Mr and Mrs Keane gave a reception to their family, relatives, and friends.

Mr and Mrs Keane have one son, Thomas, and three daughters, Mrs Bernie Tynne, Mrs Rita Parrott, and Mrs Alice King.

DIPLOMAS

MEMBERS of the ESB sales staff were presented with diplomas in salesmanship by Mr Pat Tynan, Sales Engineer. They were Messrs Eddie O'Neill, Pat Tynan, John O'Neill and Jimmy Ryan.

BAND LEADER

LIMERICK band leader, Bud Clancy, was presented with a cake by his daughter Marie, on the occasion of his 60th birthday.

SUPERSTAR

LIMERICK rock opera fans are in for a real treat when the much-lauded Jesus Christ Superstar opens a six nights run at the City Theatre.

30 YEARS AGO

FIRE OFFICER

JOSEPH O'Flynn, station officer of the Limerick Fire Brigade, retired after 37 years' service. He drove the first petrol-driven fire engine in Limerick in January 1930.

When he joined the Workers involved in the construction of the Irish Wire factory in 1934.