

The Limerick Civic Trust are about to embark on a project to put back the railings and gas lamps at the statue of Daniel O'Connell in the Crescent. This picture was taken in 1928 with the original rails and gas lamps.

PETROL

PETROL and oil were reduced by 1d per gallon. The new price of a gallon of petrol was now, premium grade, 4/7 1/2d; standard grade, 4/4d.

THE DINT

where he was employed as a compositor.

'THE BARON' DIES

THE flamboyant John J Hanley died in an accident in Detroit. He was the self-styled "Baron of Broadway" and was born in a small cottage in Margaret Lockwood, Denis Price, Cecil Parker, F J McCormick, Siobhan McKenna, and Dan O'Herlihy.

Other local cinemas had "Stanley and Livingstone", Spencer Treacy, Cedric Hardwicke: "Cairo",

Fitzgerald (Askeaton), J Clohessy (St Patrick's)

AUGUSTINIANS

AT THE Triennial Provincial Chapter of the Augustinians Order in Dublin, Very Rev M O'Sullivan, Ballyhaunis, Co Mayo, was appointed prior of the Augustinian Priory, Limerick; Very Rev J A O'Flynn, OSA, Prior, Limerick, was transferred to Cork; Rev Fr Hand, OSA, Limerick to London; and Rev Fr McCabe, OSA, Limerick, to New Ross.

50 years ago

WRITER

MISS Kate O'Brien, the Limerick-born novelist, was elected a member of the Irish Academy of Letters.

1947

BANKING

MR EOIN O'Kelly, accountant at the Provincial Bank, O'Connell Street, was appointed manager of the same bank.

He had been in Limerick for the previous six years.

He was a prominent member of the Old Limerick Society and an authority on the history of private banking in Munster.

He replaced Mr T J Frost who had reached the retiring age.

PROPERTY

BELFORT. Charleville, a gentleman's residence standing on 37 acres, 1 rood, 30 perches, as sold by Alfred J Sexton, auctioneer.

The residence, a fine example of the classical type, was in faultless order and centrally heated with spacious tiled lounge and drawing room with hardwood floor, diningroom with marble mantelpiece, study, etc. and five well-proportioned bedrooms (one with bath), and basement with six tiled rooms.

The property was sold for £5,700 and fees.

"CAPPED"

INCLUDED in the FAI junior team to meet an