

Retail revolution: Shoppers looking for a bargain pack Dunnes Stores at the opening of the Dunnes Stores branch at the Jetland Shopping Centre back in 1972

An unnamed worker operates a machine on the Krups' factory production line. The kitchen appliances company opened in 1964 and closed its Limerick operations in April of 1998

Hard at work: a group of machinists working on the production line at the Krups factory. The French-owned company employed over 1,200 people in Limerick at one point