

BY IN IRELAND.

APRIL, 1748.

our issue of Tuesday, 1st June.)

I found a roaring lion began to roar also. Some Roman Catholics and good Protestant families were either to oppose the work of the Society or not yet do it openly, the strong against them.

—Great part of the town was in the morning, I found, began to feel what the impression is not made on one here and there only. of the hearers seem to go on held in the Connaught side of the attentive multitude of both man Catholics. I preached no balm in Gilead," to help applying to the particular. I am satisfied almost persuaded to give them a Physician of Souls.

to Birr, twenty miles from the city of the Session house not "the Grace of our Lord Jesus" to a dull, rude, senseless, weighed the greater part of the way just in the middle of a me cried out (a Carmelite priest), "You lie!" "You lie!" nts cried out, "Knock him" no sooner said than done. but knew not what was the e was over. In the evening

There being no house that congregation, I preached here I was afraid, in a new place, ew in the morning, but there umber, and such a blessing as since I landed in Ireland.

I rode to Clara, and preached 7, who were not afraid of a at half an hour after sermon ople, and then rode to Tulla- as on the common Irish cabin n still reigned here.

vas
ca domos ignesque lenonia,
minos communis claudert

leed, for no light can come w-built cavern on the master at one hole, which is both nd door. In the evening I quiet congregation, though st.

ough my flux continuedly caused by my eating a bad as unwilling to break my shift to ride in the afternoon had not seen such a congreg- et out from Dublin, and the stand like sticks and stones rstand what I spoke, of spirit and in truth."

ve people came at 5 than I in any part of Ireland, and moved towards them theain the quarter deck. I was soon wet from head to foot, but I took no cold at all. Four in the morning we landed at Holyhead, and in the evening reached Carnarvon.

Close of the second visit of the Rev. J. Wesley to Ireland.

The third visit will be given in a subsequent issue.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. JOHN LAIRD.

The remains of the late Mr. John Laird were removed from his late residence, Rathbane Cottage, at nine o'clock yesterday for interment at the family burial place at St. Munchin's Church. The cortege was extremely large and of a representative character, a striking testimony of the respect and esteem in which the deceased gentleman was held by all classes of the community. The chief mourners were:—Dr. H. S. Laird, son, and Mr. Thomas Seymour, Ennis, nephew.

Amongst those present or who sent carriages were:—Rev. T. B. Robertson, St. Munchin's; Rev. G. L. Swain, St. Michael's; Mr. A. W. Shaw, J.P.; Mr. A. Crawford, Mr. P. R. Toppin, Mr. Henry O'Shea, Mr. J. Delaney, Drs. Kennedy, Fogerty, Gelston, Graham, Waters, Lee, Mr. T. Ewart, Mr. J. Elliott, Mr. Wm. Holliday, Mr. T. C. Mountstephen, Bristol; Mrs. O'Brien, South Hill; Mr. T. H. McKern, Mr. Wm. L. Stokes, J.P.; Mr. Rice, Mr. A. McNab, Mr. R. Gibson, Messrs. Ledger, Mr. R. T. Levery, Mr. S. F. Dowling, J.P.; Mr. M. Dowling, Mr. J. C. T. Day, Mr. Joseph Stewart, Mr. H. L. Stewart, Mr. W. Christy, Mr. James Wallace, Mr. M. O'Toole, Mr. J. M. Stack, Mr. Cross, Mr. G. Belshaw, Mr. G. H. Sullivan, Mr. Andrew Murray, Mr. Cooper, Mr. McArthur, Mr. M. Egan, Mr. S. E. Lee, Mr. R. J. Lee, Mr. J. G. Wilkinson, Mr. A. J. Barnett, Mr. E. G. Fitt, Captain Kimmitt, Mr. E. C. Winter, V.S., Mr. W. C. Nicholson, Mr. George Owens, Mr. M. Herriott, Mr. F. L. Armstrong, Mr. Waugh, Mr. Kidd, Mr. W. H. Watson, Mr. Nestor, Mr. Michael Egan, Mr. E. W. Angley, Mr. McCullagh, Mr. D. Thompson, Mr. J. Morrow, Mr. James F. Barry, J.P., Mr. Barry (Williamstreet), Mr. P. E. O'Donnell, solicitor; Mr. McCoy, solicitor; Mr. T. McSwiney, Dr. O'Neill, Mr. P. J. Frost, Mr. W. DeCourcy, Mr. O'Dell, Mr. M. Caffrey, Mr. S. McCore, Mr. Baker, Mr. O'Donovan, Glentworth-street; Mr. J. H. Roche, J.P.; Mr. Maurice Fitzgerald, Mr. Quaide, County Council Office; Mr. J. A. Baldwin, Mr. D. L. Roche, Mr. Gadd, Mr. Whittaker, Mr. R. Plummer, etc.

The following sent wreaths:—"His affectionate children"; Miss Laird, Dublin (sister); Mr. and Mrs. W. Laird, Dublin; Mr. and Miss Seymour, Ennis; Mrs. and Miss Seymour, Cahir; Mr. and Mrs. Winter, Mr. and Mrs. Guest, Mr. A. Lynch, Miss Mayne, Miss M. Enright, Mr. Turnbull, Dublin; Miss Rochford, Dublin; Miss Fordsman, Dublin; Mr. F. B. Angley, Cork.

The Rev. T. B. Robertson officiated.

CITY PETTY SESSIONS. YESTERDAY.

Before Mr. Hickson, R.M., and Mr. Poole

Ed

plays a n in Li

Energy

are neces to make

van Hou

is rich which giv and vigo prove t

THE SERVICIAL SENSATION.

LATEST DETAILS.

Reuter's Agency learns that the opinion prevailing in high diplomatic circles in London that the assassination of the King and Queen of Serbia (as fully reported in Thursday Chronicle) will not be followed by civil war in that country. Since his marriage, King Alexander has become most unpopular, and the proclamation of I Peter Karageorgevitch, who is son-in-law of Prince of Montenegro, is most probably the solution of the present situation, as his election would be most acceptable to the people.

It is known that every Power in Europe is anxious for peace, and none desires war. Should unexpected complications arise, it is thought that Austrian troops would immediately march into Serbia and restore order, but the exact