

any similar precaution be indicated, that it may not fall of effect through a like informality.

Cloned, Aug. 20. There is now in this town a man, named Sheedy, who, from every reasonable calculation, can want little of being 100 years of age. He has three times cut full grown timber of his own planting, and can now be seen resting under the shade of the fourth planting. His wife has been more than ten years bedridden, and has had no other attendant than himself; his memory is tenacious, all the faculties of sense unimpaired, and he walks erect, and apparently as strong as at the age of forty. It is to be remarked that this man has always had a great aversion to strong liquors.

LIMERICK.—AUGUST 23.

The forefathers, regraters, monopolizers, and the whole of that harpy tribe, are held in such general detestation, that they have been obliged to quit their residences in many parts of England. At Birmingham they are called badgers, and the cant phrase is "who can draw a badger."

Yesterday, a Soldier of the North Cork Militia, who was billeted in a Publick House, incautiously handling a Pistol loaded with flugs, it went off, and the contents lodged in his shoulder.

Two Dairy-men, of the names of Roche and Flanagan, on the Lands of Ballykeefe, in the South Liberties of this City, were severely flogged last night, by a numerous banditti of Rebels, most of whom were well armed, and in general on horseback.

Last night some wretches set fire to the house of John O'Brien, an industrious Farmer, who resides near Cahircornish, which was consumed, together with his entire furniture.

In consequence of the Subscriptions raised for the support of the House of Industry, the Governors are enabled to receive twenty additional Persons into the House, and they expect shortly to be able to accommodate more. The Magistrates and other Governors are requested to send such sturdy Beggars to the House as are able to work, and who continue to be a nuisance in the street.

The following extravagant prices for Butter in coarse casks and full bounds, was this day given at the Weigh-house:—1st quality 5s. 16s. per cwt.—2d ditto, 5s. 14s.—3d ditto, 5s. 10s.

Essence and Pills of MUSTARD.

FROM its wonderful power in removing flatulency, creating appetite, and assisting the stomach to digest animal food, Mustard has long been valuable auxiliary at the dinner table, and the specific relief obtained by "Whitehead's Essence of Must Pills" in these and other complaints arising from obstructed circulation, affords abundant proof; concentrated medicinal virtues are unequalled
