LIMERICK,—SEPTEMBER 3.

Saturday night last, two Cows, the property of Richard Stephenon, Esq; were houghed on the lands of Carrabeen, near Rathkeal.

Last Sunday night, several honest industrious Families, in and about Pedamore, were most unmercifully flogged by a numerous horde of nocturnal Vagrants.—Good God! when will there be a stop put to such lawless proceedings?
When will the arm of Justice be stretched to protect the peaceable and industrious?—Never had the Gentlemen of this County a more pressing occasion to call a meeting than the present, when, if some strong measures be not speedily taken to check the progress of this horrid business, before the nights grow long, God only knows what destruction may await us all!

On Monday evening, the brig Anne, with bark and tin, from Cardigan, arrived in our port.—On board this vessel came, inclosed in three coffins, the corpse of the amiable and much lamented Mrs. Hayman, niece to Messrs.
Hayman, Bankers, of this city, wife to W. A.
Hayman, Esq; of Younghall, and daughter to the late Henry White, of New-Ross, Esq;—She died in Wales of a decline, in the prime of life, universally and deservedly regretted by all ranks of people;—her goodnatures, charity, and true christian benevolence will long be remembered with tears of gratitude and sincere sorrow, by the poor of Younghall, to whom she was the kindest benefactress. Her remains were interred on Tuesday at the family burial place near Newport, County Tipperary.

This morning, at an early hour, were brought in by the Packet Guard of the Clare Regiment, Thomas Collops and one Slowman, who were taken mounted on so horse, the property of the Rev. Mr. Parker, of Pedamore, which horse they took out of his stable near this City, for the purpose of meeting and joining with an infernal gang that inhabit the vicinity of this City.—Not a night passes without some horrid outrage committed by them.

We are assured there were several thousands of Rebels well appointed, at Cahirivahala, near this City, last night; and parties of them approach in almost every night.

Since Saturday Butter fell at our Crane 13s. per cwt; the prices this day are—first quality, 5l. 17s.—second do. 5l. 15s.—third do. 5l. 11s.

day last, at the house of Richard Floyd, Esq; Mr.
Pierce Smeher, of Clare, to Miss Floyd, daughter of Mr. Hugh Floyd, of Summer-hill, in this County.

DIED. Last Sunday, suddenly, at Kilrush, Co. Clare, Mrs. Mary Troudfell, wife to Mr.
John Troudfell, of said place, merchant; deservedly lamented by a numerous and respectable acquaintance.—This morning, near the Square, in his 86th year, much regretted, Mr. George Peeacock, Clothier.
