LIVERPOOL, NOVEMBER 29.

We saw our last Publication, that the extraordinary success on Wheat at our market, was occasioned by the competition between the Millers and Purchasers for Export: We are his day made necessary of contradicting that statement—though the quantity of Wheat at market was large, and not bought by any Export Party, yet was the enormous price of 3s. 4d. per bush given for the wheat by a principal Mill. It is fit that on a more interesting subject should be corrected.
