

Old Citizen's Death

It is with sincere regret that we record the death of Mr Thomas Naughton, an old and respected employee of the Limerick Harbour Board, who passed away at his residence, 33 Lower Cecilia Griffin street, on Sunday at an advanced age. A kindly, upright man of fine qualities, he enjoyed through his long and active life the confidence and respect of a very wide circle of friends and acquaintances. He was a member of a highly respected family long and honourably associated with the port of Limerick. To his son, Mr Wm. Naughton, of the commercial staff of the "Limerick Leader" and the other members of his family, we tender our very sincere sympathy. The funeral, which took place today from St John's Cathedral to Mount St Lawrence Cemetery, was very large and most representative in character.
