Bishop Presides At Requiem Mass

The Bishop of Limerick, Most Rev Dr O'Neill, presided at the Solemn Requiem High Mass for Rev Damien O'Connell, O.P., in St Saviour's Church, Limerick, on Saturday. There was a very large congregation, the people being eager to manifest their sorrow at the death of a great priest and to express sympathy with the Dominican Order in their great loss.

Rev Wm Barden, O.P., was celebrant, with Rev Isidore McCarthy, O.P., and Rev Anthony Roche, O.P., canon and sub deacon respectively. There were over thirty priests in the sanctuary. ■
