

County Limerick Nun's Death

The death, after a brief illness, of Sr M Berchmans Gilhooly, took place at the Presentation Convent, Fermoy, on Saturday morning. Sr Berchmans, who belonged to a highly respectable family, was daughter of Mr Andrew Gilhooly, Kiltcealy, county Limerick, and entered the religious life 51 years ago. Up to a few days previous to her death she was engaged as usual in teaching, and deep sympathy is extended to Rev Mother and Community on their loss, also to Sr M Dominic Gilhooly, Presentation Convent, and other relatives. The obsequies took place on Monday after Office and Solemn Requiem High Mass at 10.30 o'clock.
