

Death of Mrs. M. Hanrahan

---

An old citizen, very widely connected in Limerick, has passed away in the person of Mrs Mary Hanrahan, relict of the late Mr Mathew Hanrahan, who had been in his day a very popular and well known Limerick pig buyer. Deceased lady, who had reached an advanced age, only suffered a brief illness before her demise at her residence, 3 St John's Terrace, on the 9th inst. The remains, followed by a large cortege, were removed to St. John's Cathedral on Tuesday evening, and the funeral, which was again largely attended, took place on Wednesday, the interment being at Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

Rev Father J Kelly, Adm., St John's, officiated at the graveside, assisted by Rev Father O'Grady, CC, and Rev Father Brassil, CC

The chief mourners were—Mrs E Lamb (sister), Patrick Beegan (nephew), Mrs N Beegan, Mrs M O'Brien and Mrs Butler (sisters in law), Mrs H Malone, Mr Stephen Malone, Vincent Malone and Mrs R Naughton (cousins), Jack Hanrahan, Jim Hanrahan, Michael Hanrahan, Charles and Wm. O'Brien, Mrs S Malone, Mrs P Beegan, Mrs V Malone, Mrs J Beegan, Mrs J Corcoran, R Naughton, Mrs Michael Hanrahan, and Miss K Hanrahan (relative).

---