

Death of Sir Stephen Quin

Ex-Mayor of Limerick Passes Away

The death has occurred at Ascot, England, of Sir Stephen Quin, formerly of Castleconnell, Limerick. The deceased gentleman was second son of the late John Quin, founder of the firm of John Quin and Co, Limerick. Sir Stephen, who had reached an advanced age was High Sheriff of Co. Limerick in 1897 and was knighted the following year. He was Mayor of Limerick in 1916, and after the Treaty went to reside in England.