Death of Mr T A Hartigan

A most popular and esteemed citizen has passed away in the person of Mr T A Hartigan, Secretary of the County Committee of Agriculture, whose death occurred on Friday evening at his residence Dons Ville, Limerick.

The late Mr Hartigan had wide connections with Limerick city and county. He was son of the late Mr T Hartigan, Boher House, Bruff, and held the Secretaryship of the County Committee of Agriculture for a long number of years. He came of a prominent sporting family, and his brother Mr J P Hartigan, auctioneer, is also manager of Mallow and Limerick Junction Race Companies.

The death of Mr Tom Hartigan is sincerely mourned by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. He was a most courteous and unassuming man, and deep sympathy is felt for his bereaved widow and the other members of his family.
