

City Sudden Death

A man named Garrett Clancy, aged about 70 years, with an address in Wickham street, collapsed and died near his lodgings on Saturday evening. When admitted to Barrington's Hospital he was dead and a post mortem, carried out by Dr. Crowe, House Surgeon, revealed that death was due to heart failure. The deceased was unmarried.