

Co. Limerick Nun's Death

The death of Sr Mary Thaddeus Quirke, a native of Carnahalla, Doon, co Limerick, took place at the Convent of Mercy, Kinsale, at the age of 66 years, and in the 46th of her religious life. This very gentle and cultured nun, richly endowed with accomplishments, entered her prayerful and profoundly zealous life to teaching—chiefly in the orphanage schools attached to the convent—wherein the intensity of her devotion to children manifested itself in her constant vigilance and beneficent care of them.
