

Limerick Woman Drowned

Miss Christine Kelleher, 22, a native of Co Limerick, employed as a waitress in a Drogheda cafe, was drowned at Cloherhead Pier, near Drogheda. With Miss Moynihan and a Miss Gardiner she was about to go for a trip in a boat. Miss Moynihan was about to step in when she fell into the water, capsizing the craft. Miss Moynihan and Miss Kelleher were brought ashore. Miss Moynihan recovered but Miss Kelleher died.
