

Limerick Man's Death

Passing of Chief Supt. M Fitzgerald

Chief Supt Michael Fitzgerald, Garda Biochana, who has died in a Dublin nursing home, aged 56, was a native of Limerick. He joined the Garda at the inception of the Force, with the rank of Inspector, and was first stationed at Watford. He was then transferred as Superintendent to Athlone, and went from there to Clonmel.

With the rank of Chief Superintendent he was later transferred to the Cavan Monaghan division, and from there again he went to the Cork West Riding division. Five years ago he was appointed to Drogheda in charge of the Louth Meath area.

Prior to joining the Garda, Chief Supt. Fitzgerald held a high rank in the police section of the I.R.A. He leaves a widow and four children.
