
Harvest Tragedy

Farmer Fatally Injured While Saving Hay

While Michael Hailey, aged 60, a farmer, Tipperary, was engaged with his son in removing hay in a hay float from a field the horse took fright at passing traffic.

Mr Hailey jumped off the load, and in endeavouring to stop the horse sustained injuries from which he died in Tipperary hospital.
