

Esteemed County Man's Death.

In the death of Mr Henry Costelloe, Croom, there has passed out of the social life of Croom, one of its most respected members. A member of a highly connected, well-known and much-respected family, the deceased was a member of the old Croom Rural District Council and Board of Guardians, to which he gave many years of service until its dissolution. A large concourse of people followed his remains to Manister Church, where the interment took place in Manister after Requiem Mass.
