THE CREEGS OF LIMERICK
(By WILLIE W. GLEESON)

The fascinating story of the meeting of "The Monks of the little girl" (as reported by the "Leader"), and the subsequent engagements in the ecclesiastical council of Limerick, with the "good" Irish, as described by Joseph Cleary, a local historian and author, has been made highly interesting reading. That famous meeting, held in 1874, was attended by an Englishman, Rev. J. Lynch, of the Diocese of Limerick, and an Englishman, Rev. J. Lynch, of the Diocese of Limerick. The meeting was continued for several days and the result was the formation of the "Association of the Little Girls of Limerick". The association was formed to protect the rights of Irish girls and to prevent the interference of Englishmen in their education.

Despite all the transformations, conversions, annexations and changes in the outside world, however, one thing remains constant - the love of Ireland for its native land. And this love is shown by the "Percey Monks", who carry on the tradition of the old Danes in the ninth century.

There are other sources of interest. "The Monks" are said to wear green cockades in their hair. Anyhow, be it as may be, no one can deny their loyalty and respectability, since there is no finer piece of the representation of the "Percey Monks" in the "List of Mayors of Limerick".

In the Broad Street-Mungret area, there is a very fine and prosperous thoroughfare today, which could easily be called "Mary Street" - a well-chiselled archway, formerly the entrance to the "Old Bear Inn", having on the key-stone the inscription "Pierce Cleary, 1874". This Pierce, when Mayor in 1874, was deposed for refusing allegiance to the Pope and in 1875 when C. Michael Cleary was Mayor, he was fined £60 for a similar offence.

Many of the Creegs, too, have attained to ecclesiastical distinctions. In 1869, the Bishop of Limerick, Dr. J. Cleary, was appointed by the Pope to the See of Arundel, and at the beginning of the 18th century, Dr. Cleary was Arch-bishop of Dublin.

In 1871, we again find the name of the "Percey Monks" as, for being a D.D. it was raised to the rank of Dean of the diocese; whilst a John Cleary, D.D., was Parish Priest of St. Mary's for 45 years, until his death in October, 1799.

The "Percey Monks", then, it would appear, have been the "birthplace" of such a multitude of names as Cleary! It was founded, hardly four years old, the "seed" of St. Mary's Convent School, with the aid of Father Michael, EFI, John, and Rev. J. Cleary, of the "Association of the Little Girls of Limerick". The "Percey Monks", in studying Limerick's ancient and chequered history, is always well worth the native Irish, who have been the subjects of such collections as Cleary's "History of Father Cleary's Bank", attached to the Arch-Cohort of Limerick.

On the subject of Limerick's history, it is always well worth the native Irish, who have been the subjects of such collections as Cleary's "History of Father Cleary's Bank", attached to the Arch-Cohort of Limerick.

On Big Race in England

On Saturday night last, a keen interest was shown in the "Cleay of the Gold Mine". A large number of people, who had been cheering the Irish, wrote them that their success was due to the fact that they were the "heart and soul" of the Irish nation. The "Cleay of the Gold Mine" was the "heart and soul" of the Irish nation.

Ford Almanac Distributed in Dublin

Over 1,000 copies of the 1967 Ford Almanac were presented by the Ford's general sales manager, Mr. J. Cleary, of the "Ford Almanac" in the Shelbourne Hotel, Dublin. The copies of the Almanac are for distribution among competitors in the "Can You Beat It" competition. The Almanac is a journal of the Sugar Co.

The Ford Farm and Home Almanac is a volume of nearly 800 pages packed with instructive and entertaining articles, with many illustrations and diagrams in full colour, all of great interest to those who live in the countryside.

Ford, who has won many firm friends in Ireland, assured us that the Almanac has been distributed to over 60,000 copies each year. This year, in order to ensure distribution, a number of Ford dealers are distributing copies of the "Ford Almanac" to their customers. These copies will be distributed to all Ford dealers in Ireland, in addition to the "Can You Beat It" competition. These copies will be distributed to all Ford dealers in Ireland, in addition to the "Can You Beat It" competition.

The Ford Farm and Home Almanac is a volume of nearly 800 pages packed with instructive and entertaining articles, with many illustrations and diagrams in full colour, all of great interest to those who live in the countryside.

The Almanac has won many firm friends in Ireland, assured us that the Almanac has been distributed to over 60,000 copies each year. This year, in order to ensure distribution, a number of Ford dealers are distributing copies of the "Ford Almanac" to their customers. These copies will be distributed to all Ford dealers in Ireland, in addition to the "Can You Beat It" competition. These copies will be distributed to all Ford dealers in Ireland, in addition to the "Can You Beat It" competition.

The Ford Farm and Home Almanac is a volume of nearly 800 pages packed with instructive and entertaining articles, with many illustrations and diagrams in full colour, all of great interest to those who live in the countryside.

On Big Race in England

On Saturday night last, a keen interest was shown in the "Cleay of the Gold Mine". A large number of people, who had been cheering the Irish, wrote them that their success was due to the fact that they were the "heart and soul" of the Irish nation. The "Cleay of the Gold Mine" was the "heart and soul" of the Irish nation.

On Big Race in England

On Saturday night last, a keen interest was shown in the "Cleay of the Gold Mine". A large number of people, who had been cheering the Irish, wrote them that their success was due to the fact that they were the "heart and soul" of the Irish nation. The "Cleay of the Gold Mine" was the "heart and soul" of the Irish nation.

On Big Race in England

On Saturday night last, a keen interest was shown in the "Cleay of the Gold Mine". A large number of people, who had been cheering the Irish, wrote them that their success was due to the fact that they were the "heart and soul" of the Irish nation. The "Cleay of the Gold Mine" was the "heart and soul" of the Irish nation.