

Alley

Source: - Rosemary ffolliott's BMD's on Microfiche at Limerick County Library

Faulkner's Dublin Journal, Tuesday 16 July 1767.

Died in Limerick, Mrs Alley.

Dublin Hibernian Journal, Wednesday 20 Jan 1773.

Died in Limerick, the wife of Mr Thomas Alley, Chandler.

Limerick Chronicle, Monday 13 Jan 1783.

Died yesterday in a very advanced age, Mr Thomas Alley Senior.

Limerick Chronicle, Thursday 3 Dec 1789.

Died yesterday, Mr. Thomas Alley, Chandler.

Limerick Chronicle, Monday 7 Dec. 1789.

Advert: William and John Alley sons and successors of the late Thomas Alley, Merchant, intend continuing the Chandelling and soap making business. Limerick.

Freeman's Journal, Saturday 23 Oct 1790.

Died at Limerick, William Alley formerly an eminent Wine Merchant.

Limerick Journal, Thursday, Thursday 17 March 1791.

Married this morning, Mr William Alley of Mary St., Chandler, to Miss Martha Kendall daughter of Mr Thomas Kendall of Broad St., Woollen Draper.

Waterford Herald, Thursday 5 April 1792.

Died last Friday in Mary St., Gabriel Alley, Mercer, son of Thomas Alley, Chandler.

Limerick Chronicle, Wednesday 17 July 1793.

Advert: Thomas Alley, 29 Mary St. has commenced business in the shop formerly occupied by Mr. J. Fitzgerald, corner of Creagh Lane, Linen Draper and Haberdasher.

Limerick Chronicle, Wednesday 2 Oct 1793.

Married last Sunday at the Cathedral church, Mr Thomas Alley, Mercer and Haberdasher to Miss Douglas, daughter of Mr William Douglas, Merchant.

Ennis Chronicle, Wednesday 9 March 1808.

Died last Saturday evening in Mary St., Limerick, Mrs Alley, wife of Mr William Alley, Chandler. (Martha was alive on the 2 Jan 1807).

Ennis Chronicle, Saturday 18 June 1808.

Married last Wednesday in Limerick, Mr William Alley an eminent Tallow Chandler to Miss Eleanor Leake, 2nd daughter of the late Henry Leake of Cork, Esq. Walker's Hibernian Magazine gave her name as Ellen Lake.

Ennis Chronicle, Wednesday 6 Sept 1809.

Married on Saturday, Mr. Michael Clarke of Limerick, Cabinetmaker,
To Miss Alley, daughter of Mr. William Alley of Mary St.

Limerick Chronicle, Saturday 2 Sept 1809.

Married this day at Kilmurry church, Mr. Michael Clarke of this city, Cabinetmaker to Miss Mary Alley, eldest daughter of Mr William Alley of Mary St.

Limerick Evening Post, Wednesday 7 Feb 1815.

Died on Saturday last at his house in Mary St., Mr William Alley, Chandler.

Limerick Chronicle, Saturday 1 April 1815.

Married on Thursday at the Cathedral, Mr Thomas Alley of Mary St., to Phoebe, daughter of the late Mr. George Dodd of Clare St.

Limerick Chronicle, Saturday 18 Nov 1815.

Married on Thursday at George's church, Mr John Hunt, Assistant Surgeon of the County Limerick Regt., to Mrs Alley widow of the late Mr William Alley of Mary St.

Clare Journal, Thursday 4 Jan 1816.

Died on Monday morning in the prime of life at their house in Mary's St.,
Limerick, Mrs Alley wife of Mr Thomas Alley, Chandler

Ennis Chronicle, Wednesday 4 Dec 1816.

Died in Limerick, Mr Thomas Alley, Chandler.

Clare Journal, Thursday 18 Nov 1819.

Married at St John's church, Mr G[abriel] Alley, Cabinetmaker to Charlotte Dickson of John St. (Gabriel K. Alley and Charlotte Dickson was the 6th daughter. Does K. stand for Kendall?)

Limerick Chronicle, 6/3/1850.

Died on Monday at High St. Dublin, Anne Alley wife of John Alley and daughter of the late Richard Jackson.

Local Studies, Limerick City Library. Limerick Chronicle Obits.

Mary D. Alley died in June 1915 at "Olivette" Ennis Rd. Limerick.

Daughter of Gabriel Alley.

(She must be a daughter of Gabriel Alley and his wife Charlotte Dickson of John St. Limerick. Her brother must be the father of Gertrude Julia Alley born circa 1863, if she gave the correct age on the Census.)

1911 Census.

This has Mary D. Alley, aged 85, living at the home of Eldred Curwen Holliday, aged 48 at House 20, Ennis Rd. Limerick. His wife was Gertrude Julia aged 48, and one of his sons was Dixon Alley Holliday aged 15. (If age is correct she was born circa 1826. Gertrude Julia is Mary's niece.)

1901 Census.

Here we find Mary Dickson Alley, aged 60, living in a two roomed flat at House 18.3 in Henry St. Limerick. She was a Spinster living on an Annuity

Kendall

Limerick Chronicle, Thursday 1 Oct 1772.

Married last Sunday, Mr Thomas Kendal, an eminent Clothier to Mrs Bourke.

Waterford Chronicle, Tuesday 22 March 1791.

Dublin 19th: Married in Limerick Mr William Alley, Chandler, to Miss Mardia(sic) Kendal, daughter of Mr Thomas Kendal, Woollen Draper.

Ennis Chronicle, Monday 12 Sept 1803.

Married on Thursday last at Killaloe, Mr. John Jones of Killaloe to Miss Kendal, daughter of Mr Thomas Kendal of the city of Limerick, Merchant.

Limerick Evening Post, Saturday 26 May 1814.

Died on Tuesday last at Summer Hill in the suburbs of this City, Mrs Merrick, wife of Thomas Merrick and granddaughter of Mr Thomas Kendal.

Limerick Chronicle, Wednesday 3 Oct 1815.

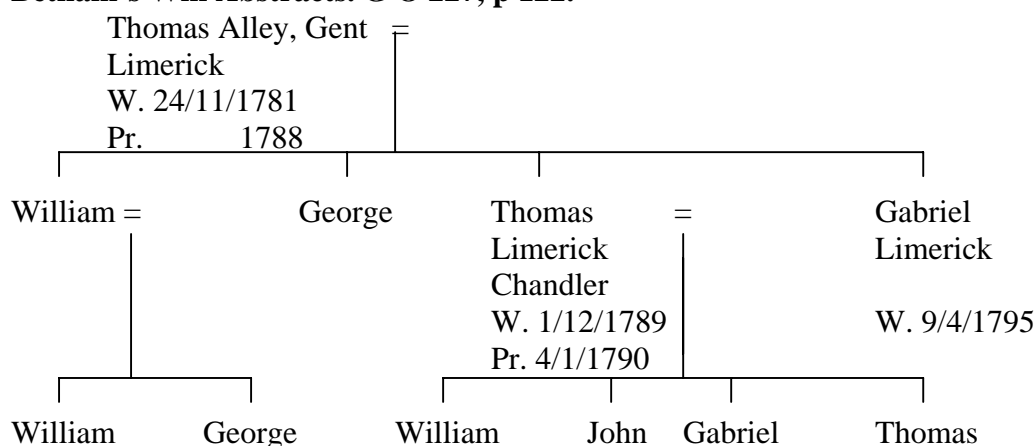

Died this day aged 79, Mrs Kendall, wife of Mr Thomas Kendall.

Limerick Chronicle, Wednesday 25 Feb 1818.

Died in Patrick St. aged 81, Mr Thomas Kendall.

Source: - National Genealogical Office, Kildare St., Dublin.

Original Betham Mss.

Betham's Will Abstracts. G O 227, p 122.

William's son William was not mentioned by Betham. Alumni Dublinenses records him entering TCD in 1775 aged 17 indicating he was born in 1759.

Thomas Alley who wrote his will in 1781 is listed amongst the 800 odd Freeholders who voted in the 1760 Election in Limerick. The only members of the Alley family listed are Thomas aforesaid and his four sons, William, George, Thomas and Gabriel.