Simon Evans = Elinor Fanningstown Will 4/4/1722	Catherine = Mr Vokes (George)? (Ballylusky)? Pr. 1726	Elinor = Mr Taylor
---	--	--------------------

What age was Simon when he died, young, middle aged or was he old?

If a husband and wife die around the same time it should indicate the deaths of two mature adults. From the Abstract it would seem as though Simon's sisters Catherine and Elinor were still alive when he wrote his will. Both of them must have been mature adults as well. So Mrs Catherine Vokes nee Evans should appear in the death notices anywhere between 1722 and say, 1742. Now it would appear that Catherine Evans married one of the very first Vokes mentioned in my research, when the Vokes all seem to have lived in St. Munchin's Parish in Limerick City.

Betham's Sketch Pedigree

(The way Betham wrote this sketch pedigree suggests he was not sure which John 3 or 4, Raymond and his brothers and sisters were related to.)

(John 2 died on the 22 Nov 1781 aged 98 so he was born circa 1683. Note: - George Vokes is of the same generation. There was a George Vokes of Cragbeg who died in 1771. There was also a Thomas Vokes, Merchant of Limerick, who died in 1785.)
