Dear Mike,

Enclosed is the research on the family of Charles McMahon and Mary Ryan of Limerick. Charles and his son were Plumbers and Glaziers of William Street.

Other Connected Families:

Thaddeus McDonnell was a Corn Merchant
Also, one time Mayor of Limerick
William (son) was a Treasurer of the Corporation

The Mc Donnells sons were the Butter and Margarine merchants of Limerick, I always thought margarine was a modern invention!

The Goggins were Stationers and Printers at the time and William Aylmer owned Eastwood in Glin.

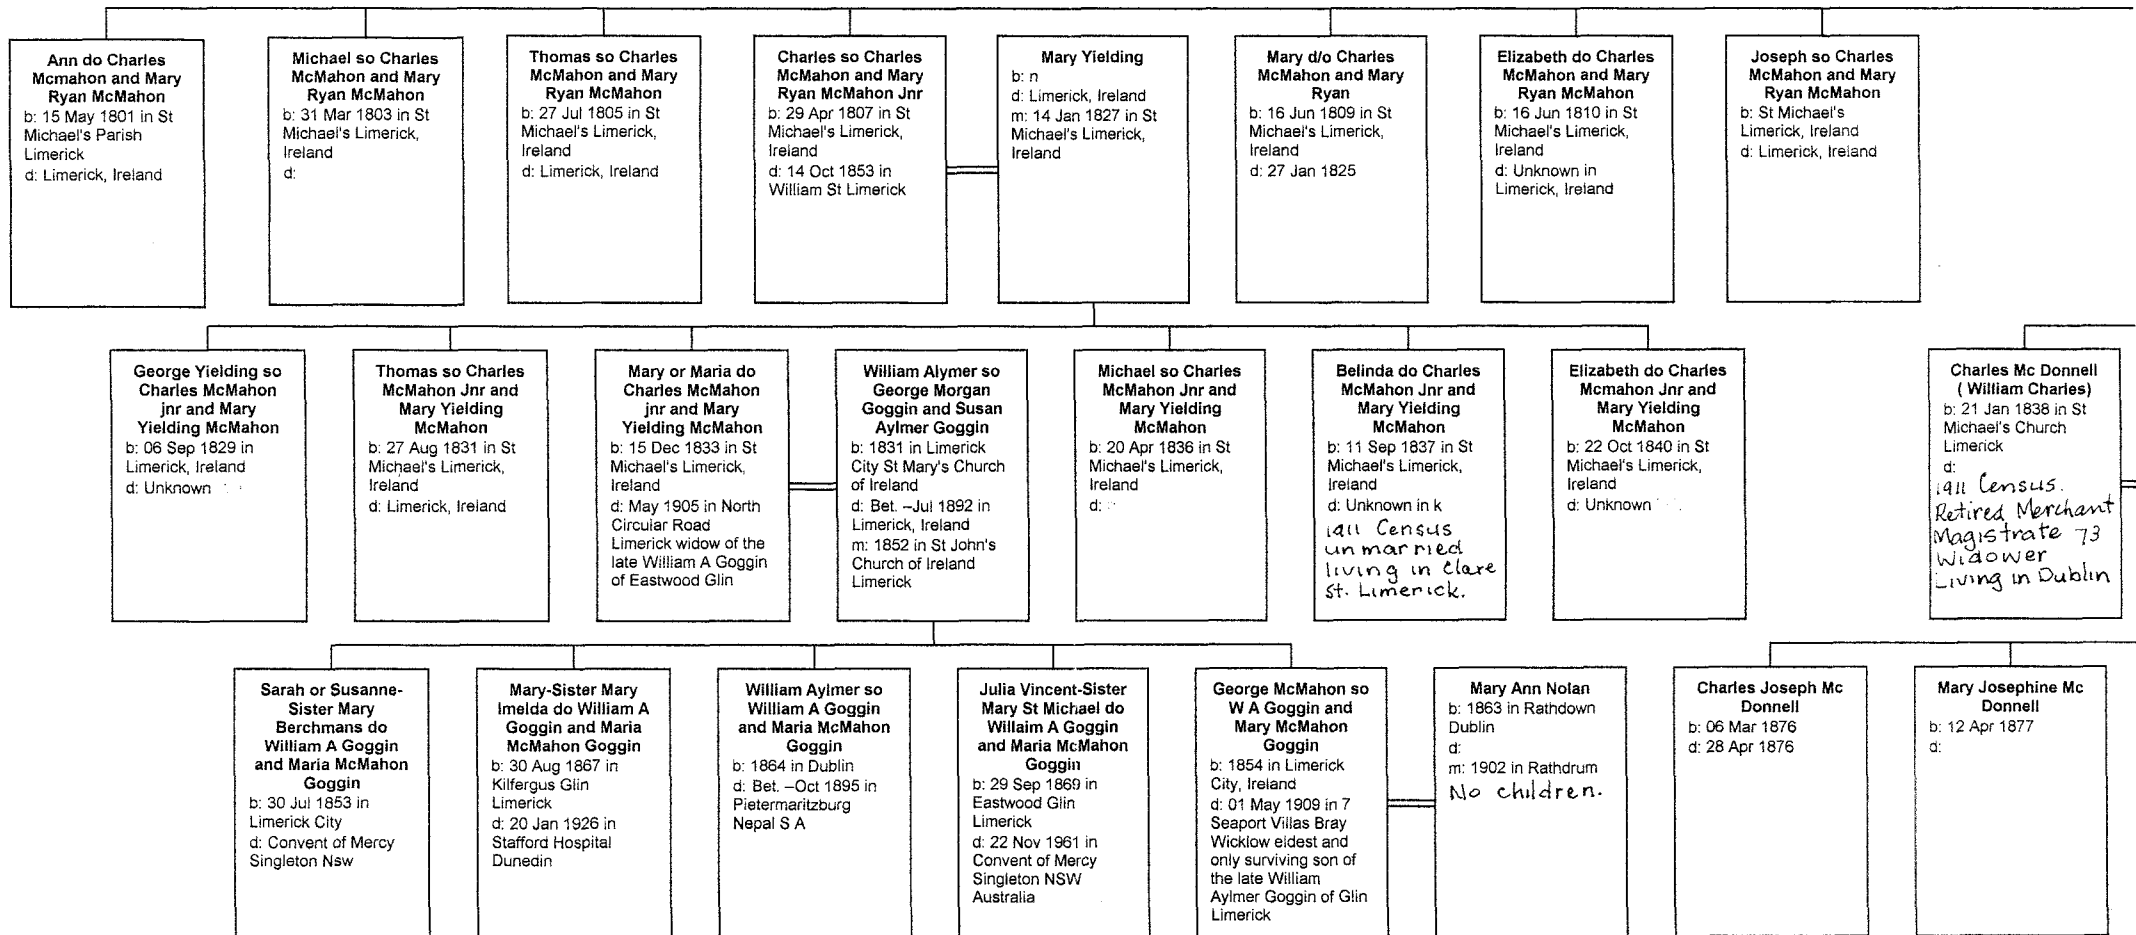

Matthew Kenny with his mother, Catherine, was a Chandler, Soap Boiler, and Lime Burner of Thomondgate.

I tried to send this as a Gedcom File, but failed.
I anxiously await new uploads of the obituaries on the web page.

Thank you for the times you have sent information from papers.
Yours sincerely,

Mary Kleinschäfer rsm.
