

ring the preliminary. Father Baldwin member of the Munster Cup Committee, asked as to his opinion on the match, recent proceedings in connection with it, and that his opinion was in accordance of the Trustees of the Cup, whom he were with Hockwell in the matter. He stated that he had a message from Mr. Secretary Munster Cup Committee, to that if Constitution failed to turn up could claim the match, and Hockwell accordingly. As Mike Ryan and De Valera were much cheering.

RY OVER DISEASE.

STOMACH TROUBLES CURED BY
 MRS. GOULD'S SYRUP. MRS. GOULD
 TELL US OF IT 12 YEARS LATER.

Mrs. Ann Gould, living at 22, Lorton Road, Stockport, Cheshire, is a woman of 50 years of age, hale and hearty looking now, but ten years ago she was so ill from indigestion and general stomach troubles, that she felt as if she could not live, and she confidently gives credit for her cure and recovery to Mother Seigel's Syrup. People who are afflicted as she was, or more or less severely, may profit by Mrs. Gould's own description of her case, as she told them in a letter which she dated February 15th, 1895, to the proprietors of Seigel's remedies.

My trouble began early in 1888, with a weak, tired feeling, inability to eat, a belching up of wind from the stomach, and a raising of sour bile. She took medicines, but only grew worse, and before long I was in bed, and was lifted in and out of bed several times. In the month of November, 1894, she was advised to try Mother Seigel's Syrup, and after taking it only a few days I began to improve. Her appetite returned, she could enjoy and digest her food, and I regained my strength and flesh. "Pre-viously," she wrote, "I was another and a new again, on December 23rd last, she says: "I remember, mine was a most severe case. I could not eat, and was so weak I could hardly stand. In fact, I used to faint away from sheer weakness. I had bad palpitation of the heart; and much from cold, clammy sweats, which left me thoroughly exhausted, while the headaches were almost maddening. The doctor could not recover, yet Mother Seigel's Syrup completely cured me, and I have been well since."

NATIONAL SCHOOLS.

In the House of Commons on Tuesday night, in reply to Mr. Thomas O'Donnell, the Secretary of State for Education is unable to give the date when the charged, the magistrate refusing information. It was stated by Sergeant Kennedy, that the occurrence was an accident. The ground was in such a condition that a cat could not have walked on it, and the young men were mere novices at the game.

THE BURTON ESTATE, COUNTY LIMERICK.

In the House of Commons on Tuesday night Mr. Long, replying to Mr. Lunden, said that the Estates Commissioners had ascertained from Miss Kate Burton that she was unwilling to sell her estate near Mungret unless the tenants generally agreed to purchase. The question of a grant to Michael McMahon, an evicted tenant on the property, would be considered when the estate upon which he is to be re-instated came before the Commissioners.

RATHKEALE PARENTS SHOULD NOTE.

At a meeting of the School Attendance Committee held at the Schoolrooms, Askeaton, on Tuesday, the secretary, Mr. Culhane, was directed by the Committee to set to work vigorously with a view to have children attend school, as there were some cases that should be looked after at once. Prosecutions will be instituted against parents, guardians, or employers, of children under the age of 14 years who have not received a certificate of proficiency in reading, writing, and elementary arithmetic up to the standard of 4th class.

DEATH OF MISS B. LINNANE.

We regret to record the death of Miss Bridget H. Linnane, younger daughter of Mr. Maurice Linnane, ex-sergeant R.I.C., which took place early on Monday morning at her father's residence, St. Lelia street. The deceased young lady, who was but sixteen years of age, had been in failing health for some time past. She gave promise of that talent in literary pursuits for which the members of her family have distinguished themselves, and her retiring and affable disposition won for her the esteem of very many friends, who deeply mourn the passing away of a young life, and the void thus created in the family circle. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon for Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, and was very largely attended.

The chief mourners were—Messrs M. Linnane (father), M. J. Linnane, "Irish Independent," M. Linnane, "Kildare Observer," J. Linnane, and W. Linnane, R.I.C. (brothers), J. Heffernan (uncle), M. Heffernan and J. Heffernan (cousins of the deceased).

ALLEGED THEFT OF A GUN.

A young man named Matthew Ryan, Kilmallock, has been arrested and remanded to the Petty Sessions in connection with the alleged larceny of a gun from Mr. J. H. Weldon, J.P., Ashill Towers, Kilmallock.
