

NEW STEAMERS.

an Laoghaire - Hollyhead will probably be replaced by the Maats, Mr. A. J. Broughton, Traffic Manager of the Maats in an interview with representatives, commenting on the post-war plans of the British line railway companies, on Friday.

ASSAULT LANDING SHIP

assault landing ship, which will take troops right to the enemy beach, now in use by the Allies, the Navy Department announced on Friday night. Small in size, the ships are built to be used quickly and also to provide cover as they fight their way

'WIZARD' NOW AN EARL

George is in the New Year Honours list. He is now Earl. He has taken the title from that of a Viscount through his estate and in the future he will be known as Earl of Dwyfor.

FOG FATALITY

Manly (56), farmer, was killed in a deep drain near his home, Shean, Edenderry. It is thought that in the heavy fog he fell into an opening in the roadside wall near a gate. His neck was

EGYPTIAN FLOODS

Forty-six hours incessant rain of yellow clay water from the adjoining desert has inundated the native village of Maade, a few miles north, early yesterday and a number of native powerful efforts, and very grave sacrifices lies behind us. But we have proved ourselves.

"During the past year the difficult task of the homeland to replace economic deficiencies resulting from the loss of former occupied countries has increased. To-day, and in the future, this demands still greater efforts. There is no other way.

"The new weapons of the Wehrmacht are already proving a worry to the enemy, and are putting a heavy strain on him."

RECENT WILL.

Mr. Craymer William Craig London, of Castleville, Castlebar, Limerick, Managing Director of Ranks (Ireland), Ltd., millers; a Director of Clayton Jones and Knox, Ltd., and Thomas Rigny and Son, Ltd., who died on May 22nd last, a native of Warrington, Lancs., left estate in England valued at £12,892. He left an annuity of £100 to his sisters, Maud and Dorothy, and the survivor, and the residue to his wife, Mrs. Lilian M. London, of the same address, to whom probate has been granted.

DEATHS.

GLEESON—On 1st January, 1945, at Barrington's Hospital, Thomas Gleeson (mason), 4, Garryowen, Limerick; deeply regretted. R.I.P. Remains will be removed at 7.30 p.m. on this (Monday) evening to St. John's Cathedral. Funeral on Wednesday, 3rd inst., at 3 p.m. to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

KENNY (Dublin)—December 30, 1944 (suddenly), John, beloved husband of Lucie Kenny, 14 Green Park, Rathgar, and Cecil Street, Limerick. R.I.P. Funeral took place to-day (Monday) (private), after 10 o'clock Mass in Church of the Holy Patrons, Rathgar, to Dean's Grange Cemetery.