

E SPRING

d Linens, Cre-
ets, Tapestries,
Etc. Also

N CURTAIN
ETS

& Co., Ltd.,
erick

HIST DRIVE

ve in aid of the Brothers' Debt
in the Monastery Patrick's night and success (writes our dent). Despite the
th's function for
et was well pat-
itzgibbons, Garron-
first prize with a
Mr. C. Casey and
ed for second prize
The raffle was won
Croom; Mr. P. J.
n, and Mrs. Fitz-bridge, Adare. The
the Brothers and
worthy of special

Wembley at full-strength. It was in the late minutes of the tie that the Galway men snatched victory when a faulty clearance was headed through.

Unless the winners show improvement on this display their hopes of overcoming their next round opponents cannot be entertained with confidence.

CO. LIMERICK PRIEST

—oo—

FEARED LOST IN ENGLISH FLOODS

When crossing a bridge at Wareham, Dorset (writes our Hospital correspondent), it is believed that the bridge, which was in disrepair, gave way, and a car driven by Rev.
Patrick Dwane, parish priest at St.
Mary's, Lulworth, Dorset, plunged into the river. It is feared that Father Dwane met his death as a result, but, at the time of writing, the body has not been recovered.

Father Dwane, who was a comparatively young man, has been parish priest at St. Mary's, Lul-worth, for a number of years. He is a native of Hospital, Co. Limerick, and son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dwane. He is brother of Rev. Father Jarlath (Joseph), O.F.M., Clevedon, Somerset; of Sister Patrick, Presentation Convent, Durrow, Co. Leix, and of Mr. John Dwane, Green House, Hospital.

heard in anot
effortless, recit
a treat for th
What will be a big attra sentation by
of one of their
one-act sketch
is a real good
A ladies' cho
the direction
should prove
item on a se
bill.

"A Limeric
Moore" will b
moment, while
tainer, and t
Dancing in so
give sparkle t

The entire compered by
organ recital
will be hand
organist, Star
always manag
enjoyment to

OIL TANK

On Friday
14th inst., the
tah," arrived
with 800 ton
paraffin oil f
Co. On Mon
inst., the s.s.
in the harbor
aviation spirit
can Oil Co.