(By 'CRAOBH RUADH') Only four of the eight city games arranged for Sunday last took place, those fixed for the morning having to be abandoned.

At Terrove—Duggan Cup, senior hurling—Mungret, 3-2; Ballybrown, 2-5. Spillane Cup, primary schools' football—Mungret Rovers, 1-3; Maigue Rovers, nil.

At C.B.S. Grounds—Spillane Cup—St. Marys, 1-1. St. Patrick's, 1-0.

At St. Patrick's Field—New Ireland Assurance Co. Shield, junior hurling—Ballymoss, 8-1; Young Irelands, 6-5.

Ballybrown ... 2-5 Mungret ... 3-2

The new pitch at Terrove was in good condition considering the recent heavy rains. It is ideally situated and should prove an attractive venue.

Primary schools' football up to very recently was confined mostly to C.B.S. teams. Of late, however, outside schools have entered for the different competitions and are showing remarkable progress at the 'big ball' game.

The game at Terrove resulted in lively exchanges, although Mungret Rovers had matters well in hand all through.

Earnestness was the keynote of the encounter and football was all the time interesting.

Mungret have got over the first hurdle, but Maigue Rovers are quite capable of turning the tables on the next outing.

St. Patrick's ... 1-1 St. Patrick's ... 1-0

In the only schools' game played in the city, St. Marys C.B.S. beat St. Patrick's N.S. by the minimum majority—1-1 to 1-0.

It was an exciting struggle between the polished scientific methods of the St. Marys lads and the wholehearted tactics of the 'Saints', who were figuring in the competition for the first time.

Play was even in the first half and a scoreless draw was the half time position.

St. Marys went well ahead on the turn over, but they were met by a stubborn defence at every point.

They were hard pressed to earn their point victory. Keane (1-0) and MacCarthy (0-1) scored for the winners while Paddy Conneen had the St. Patrick's register.

St. Marys to star were Wells, McNamara and Creamer for St. Marys and Markham, Paddy Cunneen and Joe Elliott for the 'Saints'.

Ballymoss ... 8-1 Ballymoss ... 6-5

Ballymoss Faughs look like creating a stir in junior hurling circles this season and they got off to a good start on Sunday evening when at St. Patrick's Field they beat Young Irelands by a two points margin after one of the most exciting games played for a long time.

With the wind in the first half, the 'Faughs' were seven points ahead at the interval. Good work put Young Irelands a goal in front entering the final ten minutes, but the 'Faughs' rallied in splendid style and again captured the lead.

Eire Og were pressing strongly at the final whistle, but a hard hitting defence held the day for the newcomers.

Camogie Clubs Make A Start. On a pitch which earlier in the morning had been declared unplayable for a juvenile match, the Limerick Camogie Board played the first games of their competition at the Shelbourne Park on Sunday evening.

It was a rare tribute to the enthusiasm and spirit of the newly formed camogie clubs. In the opening game Technical Schools beat Clothing Factory 6-0 to nil, but despite the wide winning margin the losers put up a really good fight and after a few games together should be well in the running.

Scores for 'Tech' were P. Shanahan (3-0), M. Murphy (1-0) and B. Barry (1-0).

The second game was much closer and despite the very adverse conditions reached a high standard.

'Na Connrathoiri' were eventually the winners on the score of 3-1 to 1-0 for St. Monica's but with a little luck the latter would have made the issue a very keen one.

Murphy proved herself a prolific scorer in securing the entire Connrathoiri total of 3-1, while N. Hourigan had St. Monica's only score a goal.

Finance may set a hard problem for the Camogie Board during the year, for lack of enclosed venues will necessitate their playing of the majority of their fixtures without any gate receipts.

An entertaining committee, however, have looked to other means to secure the necessary 'capital', and on Friday night next at the Playhouse, they have organised a first-class concert, which seems assured of every success.

Outstanding talent and an all-round varied and attractive programme should pack the Playhouse and tide the Board over their immediate difficulties.

Sunday's Fixtures. At Shelbourne Park—Limerick Leader Cup (Hurling) at 12 o'clock. St. Monica's v. Leamy's. Referee, C. Mannix. 'Kerryman' Cup (Junior Football) at 1 o'clock. Shamrocks v. Treaty-Sarsfields. Referee, P. O'Connell. Gleeson Cup (Senior Football) at 2.30 o'clock. Cloughaun v. C.I.E. Referee, Michael Murphy.

At C.B.S. Field—'Limerick Leader' Cup (Hurling) at 12.30 o'clock. Monahan v. St. Mary's. Referee, Bro. Curran. Monahan v. St. Mary's at 1.30 o'clock. Referee, Bro. Curran. St. Patrick's v. St. Michael's 'A'. Referee, Bro. Collins.

At Terrove—'Limerick Leader' Cup (Hurling) at 3 o'clock. Ballybrown v. Mungret. Referee, W. Curtin. New Ireland Assurance Co. Shield (Junior Hurling) at 4 o'clock. Shoutrude v. Ballybrown. Referee, M. Manning.

At Askeaton—New Ireland Shield (Junior Hurling)—Southern Chemicals v. Kildimo at 3 o'clock. Askeaton v. Kildimo at 4.15. Referee for both matches, Matt. O'Connell.

BULLOCK FOUND DEAD. A two-year-old bullock, worth from £18 to £20, the property of Mr. Patrick Ryan, Main St., Killaloe, was found dead on the owner's farm at Kildimo, near Ballina, on Friday last (writes our Killaloe correspondent). When found the body was still warm and a pool of blood lay nearby. It is thought that the bullock was attacked by dogs and killed, as where he lay the condition of the ground would seem to indicate that he had fought off his assailants for a long time before being finally overcome.

(By B.M.) The season is drawing to a close in Limerick and with final on Friday with the final of Division II of the League between Ennis and Sarsfield at Y.M. Hall. To-morrow (Thursday) night, P.Y.M.A. oppose Ardacrusha in the final of Division I for the McDonnell Cup at the Mechanics' Institute Hall, Hartstone Street.

Senior and Junior badges will be presented to those players who represented Limerick and District in inter-county and inter-city matches. On Thursday the senior badges will be presented to Miss Keely, T. D. Lambert and S. de Lacy, of P.Y.M.A. Club; Mrs. O'Riordan, Miss Devilly, T. C. O'Riordan and T. Crean, of Wanderers; and Mrs. Cullen, of Methodist.

On Friday the following will receive junior badges—Mrs. Hall, Miss Smyth (P.Y.M.A.); Miss McCutcheon, R. Hodgins (Nenagh Lecture Hall); Miss Devilly, Miss B. Donovan, Mrs. O'Brien, D. Lynch (Wanderers); Mrs. Byrne, Miss J. O'Connell (Sarsfield); Geo. Eades (Methodist); J. Harris (Optimists); J. Cooney and E. Small (Ardacrusha). It is hoped these players will find it convenient to be present on the nights in question.

Also on Thursday night the Limerick Clothing Factory Cup will be presented to Optimists Club, whose second team finished at the top of the table in Division III of the League.

The Handicap Tournament was concluded on Saturday, when some very evenly contested matches were seen in the semi-finals and finals of the Mixed and Men's Doubles.

The outstanding player was Eugene Small, of Ardacrusha, who, playing with his sister, Miss H. Small, under the handicap of minus 4, plus 3, won the Mixed Doubles final after a gruelling match against Miss J. O'Connell and B. O'Sullivan (Sarsfield). The scores—8-15, 15-10, 15-14—give an indication of the closeness of play.

Eugene was also successful in the Men's Doubles, playing with his club partner, John Cooney, under a handicap of minus 10 to plus 6. Their opponents, Rev. Father Chawke and Lieut. Ahearn, put up a really good fight and won the second game, but the greater court craft of their youthful opponents told in the end, the final scores being—15-10, 12-15, 15-9.

In the Ladies' Doubles final, Mrs. Byrne and Miss J. O'Connell (Sarsfield) had a comfortable win over the very young Ardacrusha pair, Misses J. and D. Webster.

DETAILS. MIXED DOUBLES. Semi-final—Rev. J. Chawke, C.E. and Lieut. Wm. J. Ahearn (Sarsfield) (plus 6) beat A. McCarthy and N. Ryan (Wanderers) (minus 6)—15-0, 15-11.

Final—Small and Miss Small (minus 4) beat B. O'Sullivan and Miss J. O'Connell (Sarsfield)—8-15, 15-10, 15-14.

MEN'S DOUBLES. Semi-final—Rev. J. Chawke, C.E. and Lieut. Wm. J. Ahearn (Sarsfield) (plus 6) beat A. McCarthy and N. Ryan (Wanderers) (minus 6)—15-0, 15-11.

Final—E. Small and J. Cooney (Ardacrusha) (minus 10) beat Rev. Father Chawke and Lieut. Ahearn—15-10, 12-15, 15-9.

LADIES' DOUBLES. Final—Mrs. Byrne and Miss J. O'Connell (Sarsfield) (minus 2 one hand) beat Misses J. and D. Webster (Ardacrusha) (plus 6)—15-8, 15-7.

Great disappointment was occasioned when it became known that the senior inter-county match between Kerry and Clare fixed for last night had to be cancelled. Clare being obliged to give a walk-over in consequence of their two leading players, J. D. Torrens and Mrs. Moore, being indisposed. Kerry now meet Cork in the final at Tralee on Saturday.

TWO GOOD GAMES. INTERESTING CONTESTS AT ASKEATON. Coppeswood College were visitors to the Askeaton Gaelic Grounds on Sunday last, fielding minor footballers against the local club, and their junior hurlers were opposed to the Southern Chemicals in friendly contests (writes our Askeaton correspondent). Considering the past bad weather, the pitch was in fine trim and a large attendance were treated to two very exciting and enjoyable games.

The hurlers took the field first and at the half way stage the College were in arrears, Chemicals leading by 2 goals to 1 goal. Doran was the marksman, while Joe Walsh played a splendid game for Coppeswood, getting their score.

The second half produced the most exciting and better play for the hour. Larry Nestor opened the scoring with a point to be followed by the best score of the game, a goal by Joe Walsh for the College. A point now between the sides; and the next 15 minutes saw the visitors at their best, but luck was all against them, the Chemicals finishing the stronger and adding a further goal and 3 points.

The final scores were—Southern Chemicals, 3 goals 4 points; Coppeswood College, 2 goals.

The minor football also provided good sport. From the start it was evident the College were the cleverer side, but Askeaton fielding several short of their full selection offered plucky resistance, and at the final whistle, although losing, showed they will be a force again this year in the forthcoming championship. The final scores were—Coppeswood College, 1 goal 2 points; Askeaton, nil.

A special word of thanks is due to the Rev. Rector of the College, who allowed the boys the evening off. It is hoped this is only the start of these welcome visits.

Two interesting junior hurling games in the New Ireland Shield are down for decision at the local G.A.A. ground, on Saturday, next. Sunday—Kildimo and Southern Chemicals, and Mungret against Askeaton. If anything up to the standard of last year's games, patrons are assured of two first-class exhibitions and trouble for their journey will be well rewarded.

BARAINS IN MEN'S HATS.—Brown, Navy and Grey, all sizes, at 7/11 each. Wonderful value at TODD'S (Limerick).

(By 'THE COUNT') Ireland's international victory. Ireland's 4-1 victory over Wales at Londonbridge Road on Saturday last shows that the Irish team is as good as that of the three years preceding the war, during which we held an unbeaten record. Stanley de Lacy, Limerick P.Y.M.A. and Ireland's right-wing, proved himself as fast and enterprising as ever. He contributed in no small measure to the home victory.

On Saturday next we meet the English XI at Londonbridge Road and hopes are high for yet another victory. The Irish selectors have made one change in the team. T. Longman (Railway Union) replaces G. Thompson (Cliftonville) at right-half. The teams line out as follows—

Ireland—J. Carroll (Banbridge), G. O'Hara (Cliftonville), W. McCabe (Banbridge), T. Longman (Railway Union), W. Matheson (Southgate), S. Fleming (Cork C.I.), S. de Lacy (Limerick P.Y.M.A.), R. Walker (Dublin Y.M.C.A.), J. Neville (Portrane), J. Bowden (Lisnagarvey), J. V. Luce (Cartha and Three Rock Rovers).

England—J. E. Aitken (North), C. E. Wyatt (S.), P. Whitbread (S.), M. M. Walford (W.), F. N. Sell (E.), T. L. Rowan (S.), R. C. Tattersall (N.), J. C. Dodd (N.), D. Tattersall (N.), N. F. Bonett (E.), G. A. Eakiss (E.).

Ladies' International. On the other side of the Channel, the Irish Ladies' XI completed the international victory by defeating Wales 7-2 at Colwyn Bay this finishing, their series undefeated, having scoreless draws with both England and Scotland.

Irish Senior Cup. Cliftonville are now out of the Ulster section of the Irish Senior Cup, having gone under to Lisnagarvey 3-0 on Saturday last. Lisnagarvey next meet Portrush in the Ulster final and the winners of this meet the winners of the Y.M.C.A. v. Trinity game (played yesterday). Catholic Institute will be at home in the final of the Irish Senior Cup if Leitaneir emerge victors, and will travel to Dublin if Ulster win.

Senior League. L.P.Y.M.A. 'B', 4; Millbrook, 1.

Junior League. L.P.Y.M.A., 2; Constitution, 0.

At the Ennis Road on Thursday last 'Young Men's' took the lead in the Junior League by defeating 'Cons.' 2-0. Ellis and Jack Stockill scored one each in the first half.

Fixture—Junior League. Millbrook v. L.P.Y.M.A., at Rathur, at 6 o'clock, on to-morrow (Thursday), 27th inst.

RUGBY FOOTBALL. LIVERPOOL UNIVERSITY VISIT. The first Cross-Channel team to visit Limerick since pre-war will make its appearance at Thomond Park on Saturday evening next, when Liverpool University's fifteen, who are no strangers to Limerick, will meet Garryowen. It is ten years since their last visit and their appearance at headquarters should prove the tit-bit of the season. To facilitate the 'fans' who want to listen in to the broadcast of the Ireland v. Wales international, the kick-off is timed for 5 o'clock.

MUNSTER SCHOOLS CUP JUNIOR FINAL. What should prove a very entertaining match will be the meeting of Rockwell College and Presentation Brothers' College, Cork, in the final of the Munster Schools Cup at Thomond Park to-morrow (Thursday). Kick-off, 3.30.

MUNSTER CUP DATES RATIFIED. The dates for the semi-finals of the Munster Senior Cup were ratified at a special meeting held in Cork last evening. The Garryowen v. Constitution game will be played on Easter Saturday at Thomond Park, and the Dolphin v. Young Munster re-play will take place on Easter Sunday at the Mardyke, Cork.

MRS. C. O'DONNELL. CAHERDUFF. We regret to announce the death of Mrs. Catherine O'Donnell, which took place on Friday of last week at her residence, Caherduff, Manister. She had been in her usual good health until a few hours before her death and in the illness which preceded it received spirital comfort and consolation from her Parish Priest. The snows of more than seventy winters had left little trace of their harshness on her, for the sunlight and genial warmth of as many summers had lighted in her heart a fire which banished coldness. Kindly, generous, hospitable, charitable, her life was one long chain of good deeds well done. A typical Irish mother, loving and lovable, always striving towards a better and material uplift, her death was a reflex of her patient devotional life. With the brown beads which she had loved so much, and used so unsparsingly through life, still clasped between her fingers while she murmured but in audible tones the Divine Praises she passed into the Great Dawning.

At the removal of the remains on Saturday evening to St. Michael's Church, Manister, as well as at the interment in the adjoining cemetery the following day, the large numbers who attended testified in no small way to the esteem in which she had been held, and to the sympathy which was felt for her family.

Chief mourners—Christy, Willie, Michael, Jimmy, Joe and John O'Donnell (sons), Mrs. T. McCann (sister), Mrs. D. Cantwell (daughters), Maura, Pauline, Bridget, Eda, Jim, David, Tom, Willie and Giddy Cantwell, John and Catherine McCarthy (grand-children), Michael O'Connell (brother), Sister Ita Joseph (sister), Mrs. W. O'Donnell (daughter-in-law), Mr. T. McCarthy, Mr. D. Cantwell (sons-in-law), Jim, John, Michael O'Connell (sons), James, Pat, Ed. O'Donnell (nephews), Mrs. O'Grady, Mrs. Houllihan, Mrs. O'Connell, Misses Nell and Kit O'Connell (nieces).

It would be impossible to give the names of those who so kindly sent telegrams messages of sympathy and Mass cards.

Rev. Father P. Finn, P.P., Manister, officiated at the graveside, assisted by Very Rev. J. Canon Wall, P.P., Croom; Rev. Father T. Kirby, C.C.; Rev. Father D. Crowley, C.C., do.

DEATH OF MISS M. A. O'CONNELL, CROOM. The bereavement which the O'Connell family suffered through the death of their mother on Friday was accentuated by the death of their aunt, Miss M. A. O'Connell, of Bridge Street, Croom, on Tuesday morning of last week. Miss O'Connell had been in failing health for some years and her death was not entirely unexpected. The patience with which she bore her sufferings was proof of her whole life's character, fearless and brave, and affectionate. A very large cortege followed the remains from St. Mary's Church, Croom, to the family burial ground in Manister. The priests present at the interment were Very Rev. J. Canon Wall, P.P., Croom; Rev. Father T. Kirby, C.C., do; Rev. Father D. Crowley, C.C., do; and Very Rev. Father Finn, P.P., Manister.

ASKEATON MARKETS. The following were the ruling prices at Askeaton weekly markets: Turkeys, 1/8 per lb.; geese, 1/2 per lb.; chickens, 1/7 per lb.; old hens, 1/2 per lb.; feathers, 3/6 per lb.; hen eggs, 2/3 per doz.; duck eggs, 2/3 per doz.

KILMALLOCK MARKET. Eggs, 2/7 per doz.; turkeys, 2/- per lb.; old fowl, 1/- per lb.; guinea fowl, 3/6 per lb.; geese, 10d. per lb.; rabbits, 1/6 each, and pigeons, 1/6 each.

MRS. MICHAEL CHAWKE, BALLYALLINAN. It is with feelings of regret we record the death of Mrs. Chawke, Ballyallinan, Rathkeale, which took place at St. John's Hospital, Limerick, on Wednesday morning, the 19th inst. Deceased was not in her usual health for some time past and bore her illness with Christian fortitude and resignation and without complaint. For many years she was a most devout and ardent attendant at the First Friday devotions. She belonged to very old and respectable stock of the farming community. Of a most kind and affable disposition, she was held in the most affectionate esteem by her neighbours and large circle of friends. Deeply religious, she had the kind word for everybody and she looked upon her dispensations to the poor and needy as a matter of strict Christian duty. The greatest sympathy is felt for her husband and family locally and over a wide area of West Limerick, and the large cortege which accompanied the remains from the hospital to St. Mary's Parish Church, Rathkeale, on Wednesday evening, 8th inst. and also the very large attendance at the funeral next day to the family burial place at Kilmee, bore very ample testimony to the respect and sympathy felt for the family in their bereavement.

The officiating priests at the graveside were—Rev. Father Chawke, C.C., Rathkeale; Rev. Father Costelloe, C.C., do.; Rev. Father Enright, C.C., do.; Rev. Father O'Brien, P.F. Clontarf; Rev. Father O'Callaghan, P.F. Knockaderry, and Rev. Father Boyce, C.C., do.

The chief mourners were—Michael Chawke (husband); Daisy Chawke (daughter), Tommie Chawke (son); William Murphy (brother); E. Murphy (nephew); Margaret Murphy (sister); Mrs. Mary Ann Maud Murphy (nieces); Willie Murphy and Jackie Murphy (cousins). Among the other relatives attending were—William Chawke, Duxtown; J. Chawke, do.; Miss Kitty Chawke, do.; J. Chawke, Knockbeg; Miss Josie Chawke, Knockbeg; T. Chawke and Mrs. Chawke, Feenagh; J. Chawke, Bohard; W. Chawke, Drominacree; J. Chawke, Gurtnacree; M. Chawke, Dublin; Mrs. Galvin, Newtownshandrum; Richard Chawke, Granagh; Mrs. Kennedy, Killolemon West; J. Moloney, do.; Mrs. Donovan, do.; J. Chawke, Granagh; J. Bennett, Graigacurra; Niell McDonnell and Mrs. McDonnell, Court, Rathkeale; J. Chawke, do.; J. O'Donnell, Croom; Mrs. McDonnell, do.; Mrs. M. Casey, do.; Mrs. Hartnett, Ballyea.

Mass cards were sent by the Galvin Family, Newtownshandrum; Murphy Family, Pallas; McCarthy Family, Drominacree; Chawke Family, do.; Chawke Family, Bohard; Chawke Family, Granagh; Richard Chawke and Family, do.; J. Chawke and Family, do.; Chawke Family, Duxtown; Chawke Family, Knockbeg; Mr. and Mrs. McDonnell, Rathkeale; Mrs. Kennedy, Killolemon West; Miss B. Murphy, Inverin Post Office, Galway; Moloney Family, Killolemon West; Mrs. and Mrs. Keating; Ahalin; Mrs. M. Keating, Killolemon; Widow and Family of the late Mr. M. M. Keating, do.; J. Keating, Ballyallinan Castle; Mr. and Mrs. D. Collins, Ballyallinan; Miss Teresa Collins, do.; the Misses Mulcahy, do.; Mrs. Nash and Family, do.; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford, do.; the McCoy Family, do.
