

taken the bicycle from four pints of ed the bicycle to "go ut shortly after get- wheel became punc- got afraid and threw er. He meant to tell terwards but heard le had been recov-

IN ENGLAND.

agreed with the Super- version of how the mitted. The defen- was in England and uring to get across was only 18 years of adjourned the case enable the defendant ngements to get to

UNSEEN DOGS

AT JUSTICE'S WARNING

on dismissing cases when you have thirty monses before every r. D. F. Gleeson, B.L., y's sitting of Lime- Court, when Gardai nd McCarthy sum- ber of dog owners have their animals of the defendants were number discharged obation of Offenders warned potential unless dog owners ces on the prescribed , they would be fined minimum amount, 0/-. There were at these summonses be- to-day and that posi- ve to be stopped. ran—We have the every year.

cannot go on dismiss- mmonses under the Let all dog licences in January any more. ounce definitely that is summoned for a ay will be fined the unt, unless there are ing circumstances.

FATHER AGAIN!

bove heading the fol- s in the current issue allholder and Home may be late, but its On April 24th, 1827, tt wrote:—

snow—a foot thick in I dare say. Severe the poor lambs now e world."

n with the foregoing st to note that in his well-informed "Odds eekly contribution to Leader," "An Man- writing in the pre- tions that the ancient Ireland "the land of e had bad weather in efore 1946 and 1947.

WEST LIMERICK NUN

—oo—

PASSES AWAY IN TRALEE

Sister Mary Agnus Newman, who died at St. John's Convent of Mercy, Balloonagh, Tralee, was a native of Knockacruig, Dromcollogher, Co. Limerick. She spent 41 years in religion, the greater part of it in charge of the laundry attached to the Convent. Her death is deeply regretted by the Community and laundry staff. The funeral took place on Monday at the Community Cemetery after Solemn Requiem Mass, celebrated by Rev. Denis Moriarty, C.C., with Rev. D. J. O'Doherty, C.C., deacon; Rev. P. Scott, C.C., sub-deacon. Other clergy present were:—Very Rev. W. Behan, Very Rev. A. O'Sullivan, Rev. Prior Glendon, O.P.; Rev. Father Keenan, O.P.; Rev. M. Herlihy, Rev. M. Stack, Rev. M. Keane, Rev. Fr. Twomey, Melbourne; Rev. J. P. McMahon, Rev. T. Daly. Rev. Bro. Healy represented the Christian Brothers.

The chief mourners were:—D. Newman, J. Newman, P. Newman (brothers), Mrs. J. Newman (sister-in-law), J. Newman, D. Newman (nephews), Mr. O'Riordan (brother-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. Jones.

DEATH OF MRS. JOSEPHINE McMAHON

With deep and sincere regret we chronicle the demise of Mrs. Josephine McMahon, wife of our very highly esteemed and respected fellow citizen, Mr. Morgan McMahon, which took place at Nathan Home, Manchester, yesterday, after a long illness.

The late Mrs. McMahon, before her marriage, was a distinguished member of the teaching profession. A lady of refinement and culture, she took a great interest in a variety of subjects that called for training and study. Her kind and gentle disposition, coupled with her readiness to help social and charitable activities, were traits in her character that endeared her to a very wide circle of intimate friends and the public in general.

The sympathy of the citizens will go out unstintedly to her bereaved husband, five children and son-in-law, Dr. Michael Feely, in their bereavement.

The remains will arrive by plane at the Shannon Airport this (Friday) evening at 6.30 o'clock, for conveyance to St. John's Cathedral. The interment will take place tomorrow (Saturday) at Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery after the celebration of Requiem Mass at 10.30 o'clock.

CAPTAIN MONTEITH.

After 30 years absence in the United States, Captain Robert Monteith, who was identified with the Casement landing and was well known in Limerick, arrived yesterday in Liverpool on his way to Ireland. He and Mrs. Monteith, by whom he was accompanied, are to settle down for good in this country.

The Markets Field— of Limerick's Greyhound has undergone a tran During the past year th has been torn asunder, by a big number of wor have converted it into most up-to-date tracks i try. The present indicati greyhound racing will be Limerick within the next And what a big surpr will get! The amenities include a grand stand, bookies, concrete pas many other modern fa numerous to mention. grand job, and congratu due to all concerned.

THE CUCKOO.

The cuckoo, a little usual, was heard in the the city yesterday, and listened to the call of th come visitant. The cor by the way, made its p and indulged, as it we rivalry with the cuckoo. charm of the cuckoo's cry lies in its association it is not melodious, alth are many who hold a co It certainly presents no the ear, because it gene to us mellowed by di brings to mind a flood ted and anticipated ple any case, it is good to this harbinger of su arrived, and yesterday, stated, people enjoying the outskirts of the thrilled beyond measure heard the cuckoo once a

APPOINTED ASSESSOR

Capt. C. J. Hanrahan, very popular Harbour, been appointed by the an assessor under the Shipping Act. Under t ment Capt. Hanrahan, unique seafaring record, Boards set up to in damage caused to vesse collisions or from other the first world war Cap was on the high sea master. He had man encounters with Ger marines, but, due to his manship, he always s eluding the torpedo. Dr War II, Captain Hanra request of the Governme Competent Port Authori rick. When he relinquit duties some time ago he thanked by the Minis fence.