

The defendant stated that the plaintiff gave him the machine as a gift. He cut the plaintiff's hay for a long number of years.

The Justice gave a decree for £2 provided the machine was returned; if it were not returned the civil bill could be re-entered.

Mr. W. A. Lee, solr., appeared for Flynn and Mr. J. T. Liston, solr., for Fraser.

---

DEATH OF PROMINENT MUSICIAN

---

The death of Professor Eugene S. O'Mahony occurred at 18 Pearse Square, Fermoy. The deceased was a native of Newcastle West, Co. Limerick, and had been organist at St. Patrick's Church, Fermoy, since 1916, and was Professor of Music at St. Colman's College, Fermoy. Prior to 1916 he was organist at St. Patrick's Church, Cork.

The deceased, who was a very talented musician, broadcast over Radio Eireann many times, and his death comes as a great blow to the people of Fermoy, especially to the music lovers, by whom he was greatly appreciated and respected. He is survived by his widow and four sons.

---

NEWCASTLE WEST PRIZE WINNERS

---

Newcastle West breeders scored outstanding successes in the annual Dog Show held at Cork on Monday, when three local breeders secured prizes. Mr. J. C. Spiller, Manager, National Bank, New-he wrote, "I but to feel and inner man." book by you. F again. Study all and every own—assimilate are married, after month, ye as your daily Think about Practise it. E into your Rule this I promise, tire of thankin ing Providence your way. Fat us a crock of g sel and instruct

As proof of which he writ viewer, himself quite determined vice he is giving has read every terest and, as h It is his most ea book may find Catholic home practised therein ings are certain

* ("Marriage, by Rev. Robert and Nolan, Dub

---

CLAIM FO

At Kilmallock Mr. H. L. Con missed a claim Thomas M. C against Liam E hay sold and de the hay was ad fendant maintai him as a gift in purchase of a c

---

SCHOOLS S